“Nutrition is king, exercise is queen - put them together and you have a kingdom”Calf exercises while I do shoulder exercise in chair This is a discussion for him forum tween me, myself and I . I am continuing to leave many of series Siri’s mistakes in here, although I use the strike through key on them and retype manually what I meant in the first place. If anyone would analyze the many mistakes, Siri, AI and algorithms “make”, we make game night game insight into the forces, attempting to say? and control our lives through information, misinformation and disinformation.

If we’re truly spirit beings, why do we cling to physical life so tenaciously? For young folks is it a craving for the pleasure and excitement of sex and physical love? As “newly created” souls they probably have never experienced these things. Are spirit beings unable to have sex, and is there anything in the spirit realm that compares? Some say there is. In any case we tend to enjoy and want to experience earthly pleasures for as long as possible .

Still striking through but leaving some of AutoCorrect’s mistakes edition, in addition to being; funny, silly or stupid I think they’re also telling us something about their algorithms . (last book the strike through didn’t come out didn’t show up. They’re all gone somehow. Have to check the earlier books to see if they showed up there? A.k.a. too lazy to edit so even some things that are quotes will be inaccurate.
debating about whether or not to add of things which is very time-consuming or just to leave it as a stream of consciousness screwed up by Siri I’ll probably do the ladder latter because as it says in the song espresso “might give a fuck her on vacation”… “ my give a fucks are on vacation”…!Expresso

Came across a YouTube channel about wisdom for old people got some good ideas. I think. It was about why we wake up at 3 o’clock in the morning, then while in the tub my left chest area started aching. Added some cold water and it I should take the tub temperature - if it’s 105 I might expect such things if it’s 98.6 maybe not when it comes to Mama bear it’s prudent not to poke her but me thinks her bark is worse than her bite… I m increasingly willing to take my lumps… it may not have been worth the risk but now it is b

Robin said feathers ruffled and hackles up. She's even said panties in a bun bunch but not in polite company .

Pickle ball Sue is coming over and the house is "so dirty" Robin said. She just picked up a cashew and she already vacuumed yesterday… hmm.
A clean house and especially clean floors are a high priority for her. I respect that and try to help… working on it

Whether it's in Ukraine vs Russia , or versus China and the rest of the world for tariffs, Trump think he's a great dealmaker maybe he thinks he's the greatest of all time and he knows. he's got the lobby behind him or at least they're using him so he's trying to use them too. It reminds me of Gracie jiu-jitsu where they had some thing unique but it's been figured out a long time ago by other martial artist, and because the Gracie Brothers were not physically imposing as much as their opponents once they were figured out, they were defeated almost trivialized with Trump. It's the same thing his dealmaking style has been figured out, he may think he's the strongest guy on the block with the greatest military. He may very well be wrong about that and about his other weapon the dollar, which is also under attack - largely because the occupation weaponized it and the world says no.

there are three singers I can think of whose voices striker a cord so much that it knocks me off my seat, Aggie Audra and Misty Boyce- with Misty. I can't tell sometimes if it's her voice or her keyboard. " got booze on your breath and you smell like death"., Lord Huron.

Can women throw a ball over hand just like a man or is there some physiological difference that prevents that?

Dad called on his religious roots as he neared the end… I'm reconnecting with mine now. His and mine differ but I respect his… not into teams be it in sports or worshipping God.

Bono sings about "all the colors bleed into one." Should we be glad that we may finally be returning to our roots and after hundreds of generations, returning to our Afro roots, shedding and weeding out those pesky, darn Neanderthal genes and traits? Me thinks… there's nothing wrong with anyone. %you're okay, we're okay

Regarding Adam and Even is it be even or get even?

It's been a typical Monday morning so far I hope it doesn't become any more typical and I'm wondering about the iPhone with the damp port warning - is this phone, "old, reliable", or unreliable?

after being lambasted yesterday for not acknowledging her, I'm reminded of some thing check in the bar made tender said all girls are a little bit nuts and her boyfriend Josh said yes it's just a matter of how much you'll put up with, but then I realize that after what we did in the morning, the very least I "" owed her was acknowledgment, but her deafness played a part in "it."

She's figured out what went wrong with our/her google drive/play and why we're paying $x/month. Then she explains what she's doing today and I listen intently, hoping that I'll remember it. Her day will be quite unlike mine… pickle ball, grocery and checking out a potential pre-school for Jude with Kayla, Ross and Louie… she's also been looking for a picture of her hair which she likes… she found it in a video of Jude saying "eggggs"… aka one of his first words My day will include trying to replace the frost-free spigot with Tyler's help and direction… crawl space here I come .

When it comes to politicians, I use the would I buy used car from this person? Guess who I'm talking about
William Penn he seemed like a nice guy, but I didn't know I'm so I can't say for sure
In case you missed it, his face is on an oatmeal box
Watching a YouTube channel called religion for breakfast today's topic is Jesus in Islam an interview with Dr. Gabriel side, Reynolds interesting but it reminds me that religion is a team sport and volatile and leading to violence or at least contention
According to Dr. Reynolds in the Quran, it says that Jesus wasn't even crucified. Can you imagine saying that to your Christian friends I can't
So my exposure to religious debate is through surrogates like Dr. Reynolds and the host of religion for breakfast. They are tackling tough questions that my country people will not, and they're not because they are convinced their eternal salvation and avoiding burning in hell relies on believing the mainstream Christian narrative, our founding fathers did not.
The founding fathers may have been geniuses in some areas, possibly even a religion in a case or two but generally, they were just skeptical, inquirer, or at least curious and not dumbfounded and down down
So to discuss religion with my Hoosier, neighbors would be like saying I'm a New England Patriots fan, and they all being Colts fans would might instantly decry me
So I can learn about religion by reading books or watching YouTube and I can discuss it only with the man upstairs and perhaps one or two people that I actually know

And those one or two people are not on the same page as me or each other
I can think of one or two other people I'd like to be able to discuss religion with as well. Maybe I can at least in one case and maybe I can't.
With that in mind after 10 minutes of the YouTube, I'm gonna switch to music it's going to be some of the usual 1st to 11 Tom Sawyer, the cast alloys House of the rising Sun and Dennis Quaid and Cowboy Junkies
And probably Lord Huron too
Getting the stitches removed from my head this morning shouldn't of mowed the lawn all those years without a hat
I have to watch first an ad for marvel comics movie. It looks quite violent as so many American movies are that's why I like foreign movies sometimes on Netflix maybe their movies are typically violent too but the ones that make it from there to Netflix generally are not.
been up since 3 o'clock with which isn't particularly unusual will have to take a nap… and stay off the roof.
Watching Tom Sawyer, and I thought I caught a glimpse of Audrey's underwear sticking out the top of her jeans. She may have confirmed it when she pulled her shirt down.
Or it could've been the lighting
Or is Audra wearing spanks after all her tummies very flat?
Watching her move is a celebration of the female form and figure
Then it's Eleanor, Lily, and the other coy sister singing a house of the rising Sun. I used to mostly just watch Lily dance, but the other girls moves are pretty cool too.
I would be shocked if Lily is not wearing spanks.
Time to wash my hair, but I need to keep the soap out of my eyes so I can watch these videos
Just two days ago, Robin commented on how much work and expense it is to stay beautiful. She was pointing to the red polish on her toes.
In God's grace forevermore - that sums up heaven to me
I appreciate my friend concerns and warning about going to hell but I take it with the grain of salt. They're sources. I take with a grain of salt too.
I walked out of the closet with clothes to rotate with summer ones. Robin laughed because my jeans were just hooked around about loop. It was a reminder, however, that I should hook up around two belt loops, and distribute the load.
Putting a shirt on without unbuttoning it first is proving to be a disaster, especially with stitches in my head
Went out to the secret bathroom and took a leak it's private, but if anybody's lurking and sees me, I just say I'm checking the Plumbing mine that is
So what came first the chicken or the egg the male or the female at the moment I'm voting for males because of women had come first they certainly wouldn't have created us the way we are

To repair the roof at the lodge buy some 10 footers
And can I make up my own mind? Who will I burn a hell eternally if I do?
watching Jesus in Islam, the interview with Dr. Gabriel said Reynolds on religion for breakfast and he says that according to the Quran Jesus was a profit, but he was immortal man. He wasn't the sum of God he didn't create the world. He wasn't the savior the you say even about him what do Hindus in Buddhist say?
Dr. Gabriel says there's very little in the Quran about Jesus and what there is is mostly from apocryphal sources and not from the canon gospels
There's probably a lot of discussion and comments, etc. about which of the Castelow sisters is the prettiest I would just weigh in by saying this one has the prettiest eyes, this one the prettiest nose and this one, the prettiest mouth
but I think Lily is the best dancer
I guess it's hard to dance with the banjo or guitar in your hands
I surf for final song while I soap up in the tub it'll be Cowboy Junkies Good Friday because the visuals aren't as important on this one, although they are nice
"What will I tell you when you ask me why I'm crying will I point to the red tail hawk soaring or it's pretty down below gently trembling Cowboy Junkies Good Friday
If I think for even a moment that I'm moving too fast, then I am
Then it's those final feet also by the Cowboy Junkies another one where the visuals aren't quite as important other than Margo's good looking pretty
These are the only two cowboys Turkey songs I listen to lately for the last year or so anyway, I'm burned out on the other one
Sweet chain Jane
I thought to tell you about my premonition, I changed my mind and laid back down" Cowboy Junkies
No sense protesting the time you got you gotta walk down every road… no sense pretending you're what you're not you got the shoulder every load" Cowboy Junkies
I'll say and I mean it I'm not uncomfortable at any church. I'm pretty much equally comfortable at most.
On the tube, Sheryl Crow My Favorite Mistake
I'm discouraged from singing, snapping my fingers or clapping, but I can't stop any of them. I've got to meet the day and a claps a good way.
All I know is you're my favorite mistake"
You're my favorite mistake your secret lover woman they will come. They will go these lyrics or sung by women. Were they written by them? What the heck did they mean?
Then on a two perhaps coincidentally a younger Margot singing Sweet Jane
"Anyone who played apart, wouldn't turn around and hate it… Lou Reed
Thought I'd overplayed worn out this song, but she's making it new again
Don't know if journaling is my favorite or least favorite thing. All I know is I can't seem to stop.
"Heavenly widened roses seem to whisper to me" Lou Reed finally know what that means
Next time the tube as I file, my big toe, Dennis sings life is like a mountain railway
I probably should look and see what dirt they dug up on William Penn. …Penn name
" where we meet the superintendent God, the father God, the son with a happy, joyous greeting Larry Pilgrim be welcome home"
I wonder if it's as described by the bandwagon

Those are my roots and I ain't abandoning them them on the tube the girls sing 7 mile Road Eleanor Lily and I can't remember the others name
But sure is nice
"Won't you take me home"
Follow a very predictively on the tube by Dennis singing I'll fly
That's good because it's when I don't have to watch real close. It's time to move on and start the day. My morning bath routine has ended. I take a baggie out of my robe pocket. It contained white goat cheddar cheese empty now, but I'll reuse it. It won't do any good in that pocket it might in another.
it's 56 highest forecast to be 64 a little bit of rain maybe still possible to get on the roof see how the chimney Crown turned out… probably should tether

"It's a long way down there" Albert Brumley?
I will fly away of glory" go ahead and make your jokes
Robin and Georgia are walking. I'm pulling things out of the washing machine and they're covered with Kleenex again we've got to check our pockets better. Will a Dreyer sheet help or is that toxic "" All I know is I spent 15 minutes last week, plucking Kleenex off our clothes
We both graciously say it might've been me and we discussed Dreyer sheets. We're agree agreement
She leaves for her walk with Georgia I say say hello hello to Georgia and Aron. It makes me think about demographics and how I'd like to constitutional republic and I wonder with the demographics work out the way I like "" who cares it's a pipe dream anyway… I do because I dream
She buttered her toast with peanuts and I snatched a great big Ziploc off the counter. Gotta keep it for something.
I click on like as a castle perform iris by the Goo Goo Dolls lilies looking fine prancing in address this time
I have to do something while I wait for my slow computer and I like this something but I'm not gonna like trying to pay for creator book on Amazon Kindle since I never can get to my account when I try
As usual, I wonder if she's wearing spanks. I don't see any lines. I just see wiggling.
Yes, I'm shallow when it comes to things like this I just can't help it. I'm too visual not to be.
Most guys get hurt in more exciting ways. My downfall has been chocolate and cake
6 feet tall, political, independent, religious unaffiliated on the tube real world by Matchbox Twenty

Adam and Even… Just saying
I only know of two racial groups where cannibalism has not been; pronounced, ritualized, traditional, customary or widespread only individual cases occur as far as I know, but I haven't gone down that hole very far Between Audra Miller from Erie and Jade Breon from Cogan station I like Pennsylvania girls

right now
They make me happy to be 3% Neanderthal… Like them
Rascals
I'm distracted by two birds on the pergola one seems to have something in its mouth there's probably over it but it's only momentary because on the tube it's singing don't stop believing … Little black skirt
Next on the tube dangerous by Big Data, yeah
“ I’ve got to get out of here slipped down into the dark. They’re right under my bed. They’re watching me.”… big data.
So who's lying the mainstream media or the alternative media that goes for everything from politics to finance to Ge politics. What is the truth somewhere in the middle somewhere?
Man released a great big fart and wiped his butt just in case then brush his teeth. I was glad I didn't have to floss.
Women are mysterious I don’t know heck of a lot about them, but I know a lot of of them will make out or do more with each other in the movies. I guess it’s a financial economic thing or lack of other opportunity or control of their careers. I think are much less likely, think that black men are highly desirable to women ball races that’s understandable to ultimate masculinity not to mention, silver tongues, and big dong and I believe that matters
My iPhone won't charge there's a message that says charging point wet
I get two choices. I can do an emergency override in charge or I can click on dismiss. I just let it naturally go away because I don't trust the Crooks at Apple. They might do anything they can to damage my phone. Given the chance they want me to buy a 15.
Would I'd like them to get is a toilet brush and a latrine to clean and lousy healthcare like most Americans instead of their golden policies
The same can be set of Microsoft Bill Gates and his operating systems that he stole for a song and sold for what's now 200 billion
Most of my friends say that the American way
I got the founding fathers would feel that way, but what do I know and after all according to my many of my friends, they were a bunch of jerks anyway I disagree
If you want another difference between men and women listen to my stream of consciousness and carry and compare it to my wives, I don't think she has it in writing, but if you could you'd see
I propped the phone up on the hairdryer on low on the soap holder and wait for it to dry out the port or to fall over which is perhaps more likely
I think about how things that we've done help us to do other things skills we've learned are transferable in many ways in many avenues of life
After a minute or two on hairdryer, I still get the message about the port being wet. I wonder if that's his BS or should I click on dismiss or emergency charge this is a losing battle I think. One of many, but that's life

As expected "" the phone falls off the hairdryer and into the sink, which was empty, fortunately
But it is a Monday morning, so these things are not unexpected
I touch the callus on my big toe to see if I need to keep working on it this morning with the metal file. Decide don't really need to and it's doing some good.
Finally relent and click on emergency override, and it appears to be charging
Was going to send a message to the kids to let them know my phone might not work. Won't have to do that now…. In case they care or need something.
This morning I put on my John Adams most unappreciated T-shirt he's one of my favorites

I put Robin's hairdryer back in the cabinet and finally finished shaving
Decide to sell the hair max equipment "" did that contribute to the basal cell carcinoma on my scalp? I don't know, but it's not worth a chance.
And I wonder about the lions mane mushrooms are they working? I can't remember if I flushed the toilet two minutes ago or not.
There are a lot of things that are unreliable around here, including me, but the reacher Grabber usually pull its way
Note to self the neuropathy in my left foot is still there and after last night, you know what it felt better but this morning it's back and being in the tub probably didn't help
Don't know if elevating it helps or hurts but hot water
Probably isn't good for it
The reacher Grabber, good for lots of things not just reaching and grabbing and lifting although right now I'm lifting the toilet seat with it don't have to bend down and I don't have to open and close it
It's a gem of a tool, unlike many others which try to hurt me. The only time this hurts me is when I trip over it.
Might put the last book on Internet Archive this morning. Should I worry about the CIA Massad and FSB? They probably have better things to monitor maybe Peter Zhan who's always a week late with his tubes he wants you to pay on Patreon that chance
I even managed to clean the cupholder on the tub with the reacher grabber and the wet T-shirt that soaks up the puddle

don't be getting smart with Mother nature, she'll kick your ass from here to China and back again

Just wondering if there's consciousness in the afterlife?

When it comes to politicians, I use the would I buy used car from this person? Guess who I'm talking about

I propped the phone up on the hairdryer on low on the soap holder and wait for it to dry out the port or to fall over which is perhaps more likely
I think about how things that we've done help us to do other things skills we've learned are transferable in many ways in many avenues of life
After a minute or two on hairdryer, I still get the message about the port being wet. I wonder if that's his BS or should I click on dismiss or emergency charge this is a losing battle I think. One of many, but that's life
As expected "" the phone falls off the hairdryer and into the sink, which was empty, fortunately
But it is a Monday morning, so these things are not unexpected
I touch the callus on my big toe to see if I need to keep working on it this morning with the metal file. Decide don't really need to and it's doing some good.
Finally relent and click on emergency override, and it appears to be charging
Was going to send a message to the kids to let them know my phone might not work. Won't have to do that now…. In case they care or need something.
This morning I put on my John Adams most unappreciated T-shirt he's one of my

favorites
I put Robin's hairdryer back in the cabinet and finally finished shaving
Decide to sell the hair max equipment "" did that contribute to the basal cell carcinoma on my scalp? I don't know, but it's not worth a chance.
And I wonder about the lions mane mushrooms are they working? I can't remember if I flushed the toilet two minutes ago or not.
There are a lot of things that are unreliable around here, including me, but the reacher Grabber usually pull its way
Note to self the neuropathy in my left foot is still there and after last night, you know what it felt better but this morning it's back and being in the tub probably didn't help
Don't know if elevating it helps or hurts but hot water
Probably isn't good for it
The reacher Grabber, good for lots of things not just reaching and grabbing and lifting although right now I'm lifting the toilet seat with it don't have to bend down and I don't have to open and close it
It's a gem of a tool, unlike many others which try to hurt me. The only time this hurts me is when I trip over it.
Might put the last book on Internet Archive this morning. Should I worry about the CIA Massad and FSB? They probably have better things to monitor maybe Peter Zhan who's always a week late with his tubes he wants you to pay on Patreon that chance

I even managed to clean the cupholder on the tub with the reacher grabber and the wet T-shirt that soaks up the puddle
And good morning America they're honoring 50 years of moms on good morning America. Next Sunday is Mother's Day so it is well-deserved and it's also national national teachers day and they are recognizing teacher through the year Mr. Jesus Perez.
I was gonna gripe about not being able to find a 10 and say what does she do with all of them they're never on the dining room table next to her computer but then I realize she just keeps them on the pass-through I think

On the tube, Weather with Maci Tetrick WRTV
My excuse for not doing an excellent job getting an A+ etc. has been for a long time. I don't do this for a living. I will add to it in this inflationary environment that I don't do this for a living and I can't afford the people that do.
We tend to think that a mother's love for the children is purely genuine love for the children and that the children's love for the mother and the protective instincts in all cases is because of pure love, but it's also because that person is a character in your life and is very important one but not as important as ourselves because of our instinctive self-centeredness
The same applies to fathers
So if there are 144,000 remaining afterwards, but it will be 1000 years until the final thing I've got to wonder what is going on who are the good guys and who aren't?
Shout out to circle back to been hearing those a lot
I must be cheap because I've never donated to 1st to 11 but I do like and subscribe and view that's worth something I think
Mesmerization can only go so far
I'm not comparing Audrey to the 90-year-old woman I saw in the wheelchair talking about her trials at the hospital yesterday at least not on the outside on the inside they may be virtually identical. God bless them.
It Bears repeating the second I feel like I'm rushing. I need to slow down.
On the tube, they sing You Shook Me All Night Long 1st to 11. I need to give Matt and the other guys credit to.
As usual after every video they appeal to you to donate or do I click on Spotify or Payton, for more support I wish them well but don't
That elderly woman at the hospital had fallen who is the usual story a man Dexter Delbert looked about 75 and how are you doing before you had heard about the phone? She said just fine then said well not really on the tube Lord her not dead yet.
I can imagine her 70 years ago she might've looked just like Audra
Since my mom was the only one to ever complement my voice (like a young Elvis, she said" I can be pretty sure I'll never be a rockstar
This morning, enjoying Lord Huron and Misty voice, Boyce even though she's singing back up Well, life life is bigger bigger than you and you are not me the blanks that I would go to R.E.M. via Audra
Every whisper of every waking hour, I'm choosing my confessions

I must be a very annoying fellow. I said the thermos on the stove forgot about it put it on very low, but it's still popped the bottom off and scared her. She also said she doesn't like me to clap why do you do that? She asked I meant to say it's how I great the new day but I didn't.
Text stocker down as I drive to the lodge to pick up the chainsaw and other tools. I think it's legalized gambling. I guess it's no worse than sports gambling. At least it's financing something better than billionaires.
Or is it?
I'm Bloomberg as I start my drive to Salt Creek it's a guy who said he used to work for Peter Teal, and he sang there are elements of a Ponzi scheme in the market. Those that keep jumping in or adding to the riches of those who are already in but he's not sure how it will end.
Call Tom keen is the host this morning as my thermos that fell over on the stove now leaks on my seat
But I've got McDonald's napkins, close hand
The guy says something about perhaps the way we are as a country and an empire I didn't hear the rest and I take a sip. It will be nice to have some coffee.
He goes on to say that Franklin Roosevelt was not a socialist was not a communist until he saw the effects of the great depression. That's when I switched over.
It's 713 as I stop at the light before getting on 465 south I need to remember to be a considerate driver and nothing more. Most of all I need to be a safe driver watch out for the other guy keep an eye on the Blindspot, etc. brake lights too
I navigate my way over to the second lane from the left and maybe I'll go all the way to the fast lane. It's a delicate ballet. And a potentially dangerous one
I go to the fast lane for a minute to get around a slow car, but the young whippersnappers and others in the fast lane push me back to the right it's not worth it. I need to remember to slow down smell the roses how slow can I go? That's my slogan this morning.
The sign says roadwork 70 East Left Ln. closed but is there a pro Sam Jones Parkway Expressway I don't see it hopefully I'll see through
It looks OK so far, but there's a semi right in front of me coming up to Works. I have time to get around them before the lane ends.
Then half a mile ahead I see an arrow pointing to the left to the right I guess that means the left flame will be closed ahead. I'm only two or 3 miles from 69 south hopefully it won't be backed up too much.
I guess Nicole said she's arriving at 7:30 PM. She wanted suggestions for a restaurant for that later arrival and a grocery store. I gave it to her. She was appreciative very much she said.
I go back to the radio, and Bloomberg touting their expertise and greatness, and I hear the word ad council to me that means propaganda
Not necessarily, I signal to the right and somebody is nice and lets me in. I'm only half a mile from 69 south.
Tom Keenan says we have some really interesting guests this morning but I'm thinking about how I peed as much yesterday after drinking no coffee in the morning as I do on days that I drink 3 cups what's going on there?
The guess says the number one mistake is to go completely bullish or completely Berish. She has a thick accent, but I can't tell what type I move the ice pack from my back to my right shoulder. The operation in two days will be on my left.
Commercial says the IRS is starting to garnish paychecks. This company wants to help you this morning. Robin wanted to help me. She said those cucumbers will get the walnuts soggy. I said

I'll probably eat the walnuts. I mean the cucumber is right off the bat and then I thought I'm finally eating walnuts after my mom recommended them 60 years ago.
I wish I'd listen to advice and my dad's about many things now it may be too late, but I will endeavor to persevere like Grant supposedly said in the outlaw Josie Wales
He was talking to the Indian chief "" I'm happy to do this stream of consciousness and too lazy added it, but since I don't have a writing contract, this is the next best thing
That's too lazy to edit it. I know I'll never be a Hemingway Shakespeare or any of those other writers so I just have to enjoy or endeavor to persevere
Next the guest says I continue to believe it's the strongest economy. I'm guessing she needs a USA.
I see a man standing next to his motorcycle on the shoulder of I 69. I guess it's broken. I'm not ready for full autonomous vehicles yet although someday I will be I think meanwhile, I'm happy for the safety features. They are gradually implementing. I hope it will be in time to save many lives.
The guest mentions Switzerland maybe that's what her accent is Swiss
Today if there's time I will bury a book it will probably be wandering allowed allowed
Next to gas says you need to be thinking about the dollar in particular and then I missed the rest because I'm thinking that I wish the strike through feature had come through in the PDF that I printed
I take my foot off the gas as I prepared to pour coffee into my cup and hope it won't spill again. So far so good
There's a tiny bit left in the thermos. I'll leave it there. It would just make a little drip on the floor anyway it's one of those cases of six or 1/2 dozen of the other. I'll take the six.
I shift the ice pack to my left shoulder and noticed there's a dent on the thermos that's where it hit the tile kitchen floor
I'm thinking about the kids as I pass the traffic officer head sign and the two workers dangerously close on the shoulder. I wonder how they're doing I wonder how many more views Tyler's video it was about a fish the first one of the season and I wonder how Kayla is doing I think she's working today and Ross has Louis Beville have Jude, Robbins going to Muncie for a medical appointment with her dad we're all struggling at times we all have our travails which either means troubles in French or blah blah blah
I pass my P Scott peace spot, but the gate is closed at the big parking lot by Bargersville athletic club. Fortunately, I don't need to go yet.
At the four-way stop I'm glad I'm traveling east because it's all backed up from the west. There's some workers there at the intersection and as usual they're all standing around, but I guess two guys are working back at the sign.
Rivian is reporting lower sales and their stock is down in the premarket same for BMW, which has a big drop in China. They're largest market. We're at least I think that's what she said
Clever Tom Kane makes a joke about Prime Minister Carney, knowing about his blockers I guess that's a hockey reference as well as a reference to his conversation with Donald Trump yesterday who still insist that Canada should become our 51st state
Not sure if Trump is unhinged demented, psychotic, or a genius, but it's probably something in between kind of like the results from my cardio light medicine induced cardio test yesterday
We share a flag day birthday his 10 years before mine and his doctor says he's in perfect health. Mine does not.
I think to myself God I wish I could stop this stream of consciousness diarrhea of the mouth, but then I think I don't want to think or pray for that do I I'm just not sure

I think about what Pete said at least I think it was Pete that I have too much time on my hands, but I don't think that's the case. We're supposed to have sushi lunch next week
Do you agree that if we have a inflationary shock due to tariffs that it will be transitory they asked the guest it should be he says, but meanwhile, I'm enjoying three hour old coffee, surprising that it tastes good still after sitting in the pot sitting on the tub being heated up on the stove and falling on the floor, but it's a good brand it's Lavalle. That's the way it goes. I wonder what they add to it to make it taste good compared to some of the other brands that don't
As for Canada becoming a 51st state, Carney says it will never happen, but he looks forward to new meetings with Trump at the G7 Trump however, says we don't need their markets. We don't need to sell to them. They need to sell to us. He's gonna make deals and he's gonna dictate the terms. Let's see what comes out in the wash.
As we approach County Road 300 S. Bloomberg goes off the air. It's just static. I see the firetruck at the Indiana Memorial business and it's time to switch to water because I've drank all the coffee too. I need to pee and I may stop at Casey's we'll see it's just ahead but I can wait. I've got my ripple bottle in to.
I decide not to go inside. It looks pretty busy. I don't wanna wait. We're have to use the ladies room and have those looks given to me. There's a camera on the corner of the building. I'm hoping that I'm out of its view.
I hear voices and decide to speed the process up. Everything goes smoothly enough. Just then, the Bargersville fire and paramedic truck arrives
I pass the Indian Creek learning center, so I'm on the back roads and this will be busy and there's no way for people to safely pass most places so when somebody tailgates, I generally look for a place to pull to the side sometimes it's climes cabinetry other times it's the intersection of Ford Road
There is a line of parents leaving the school. I guess they've dropped the kids off and it's precarious for them to get back and make that left turn in front of me. Somebody darts out I slow down. I understand what they're going through. It ain't easy Bob Greezy.
I've said it ain't easy Bob Greezy in front of Jude, a number of times he doesn't react I guess he has no reference point and I haven't tried to explain it but he's interested in words sometimes he'll repeat something like I said impossible the other day and he kind of said impossible under his breath I think he storing these for future use
The road goes up and down as I go over rolling hills and pass Indian Creek Road I'm on 300 W. approaching Klein cabinetry, but there's nobody tailgating me on the left. I see some flags out of the corner of my eyes. One might be confederate also see a couple of Angus cows they're black. I wouldn't say that ironic but it's interesting
I pour some water awkwardly into my coffee cup. I want to get those last grounds and I take my foot off the gas. I need all the help I can get to make this journey successful from the cradle to the grave that's a reference to the song that Dennis sings Kait that is Albert Brumley is a writer.
Now it's 92.3 the song is by Cage the Elephant
It ain't no rest for the wicked
But it just ended and enrolled into something that I don't know or like so I switch to my Disn card whatever you wanna call it and it's come together
I mean it's get together by the Youngbloods
Come on people smile on your brother. Try to love one another right now
My phone chimes I think that might be a message coming in which I probably should ignore since I'm driving then I pass the sign that says junk removal and the cows on that precarious hill.

The address is 8910 in front of me is some roadkill yuck
I realize that this stream of consciousness is becoming increasingly in an but the song continues smile on your brother. Try to love one another right now and that makes it better.
Regardless of the message, I click on the next song
An old white pick up truck darts out in front of me at Ford Ridge Road guns engine I slow down.
I don't honk this time. I don't wanna repeat what happened with Ken Hunter. I figured the guys got someplace he's gotta be Passing the neighborhood, Church of God the sign says Easter service 11 or something Easter egg hunt after that and I remember the YouTube videos that I saw around Easter that discussed the pros and cons history etc. of Easter is it a pagan holiday or something else?
More roadkill just before that a pick up truck pulling a trailer with equipment on it blast past me then I see the conveyor belt, but just before that I see the tree on the right that is apparently been hit several times by cars at the curve
I'm hoping the farmhouse will be in good shape and that I won't have any surprises to deal with. We do have a new cleaning crew they will come for the first time when these guests leave in four days. I'm hoping that goes well too.
I will of cars honk when I pass the Flesher's house. Susan was the Cleaner,? for a number of years and I consider them friends. I will bury as many books as I can on our 50 acres. Maybe someone will dig them up in the future. It's probably not the best marketing plan but better than nothing. Then I passed the rough, crossing the graded bridge with the big bump where motorcyclist were warned to slow down. Or at least they used to be I don't see the sign anymore
On the box, the ghost song by The Doors and I see that Robin's Gatesville country store has a for sale sign right smack in front of it
The vast radian Beach and the cool jeweled moon Robinson I mean, Jim Morrison says, and I wonder if somebody will pick up where Robin left off will the towards be passed and the store remain in this little hamlet that I call share Sherman
The big, beautiful modern house on the hill comes interview as I approach the fishers. She said somebody she knows claim that house. It's a guy that lives in California part of the year.
Children's smug in the warm something of infancy, Jim says next in the song ghost dance?
It's actually called ghost song and he's quite the poet and don't he know it as he rest eternally in France with people chipping away at his monument. I pass who I think is one of the Waltman boys weed whacking the ditch he waves I not my hand head
I'm half a mile from the farmhouse and the urgency to pay predictively increases dramatically
I may not even have time to put my shoes on squirrels pass in front of me
I had a friend who was a big baseball player back in high school. He could throw that speedball Bayou make you look like a fool Bruce Springsteen yup. Glory days
Ran into him at a roadside bar we went in had a few drinks, but all he could talk about was glory days
Well, there was a girl who lived up the block back in school. She could turn all the boys heads.
Every now and then after she puts the kids to bed, we go and have a few drinks
She and her husband Bobby they split up. I guess it's been two years now.
On the box neon pill the second K elephant song I've heard today. It's cage the elephant
Then never tear us apart by INXS
I was standing and you were there two worlds colliding, and then
I'm sure it's been said many times before but the walnut looks like a brain. At least the meat does.

It's something unpredictable but in the end, it's right I hope you have the time of your life. Green Day good riddance is on the box.
There's a car behind me at the stoplight. I think it's a lady and her holding her hands at 11:30 and 1230 give or take on the steering wheel. I think guys hold it with one hand on the bottom but we're not the safest drivers in the world. Come to think of it I think they recommend 10 o'clock and 2 o'clock as the best
As I munch on the walnuts, I noticed that there's half a slice of a cucumber in there. I take a little bite out of the corner and it seems OK even though it's starting to turn a little bit brown just a little bit I'll eat it just like the avocado I might mix for guacamole at lunch.
I'm enjoying the walnuts I can eat just a few and I'm satiated and it's not like cashew where I can't stop. The next thing will be to try to make walnut butter because when I bought was woeful Mother mother Roshan I have heard your call. I have wanted to sell your waves since I was 3 feet tall Jimmy Buffett.
Yes, I am a pirate 200 years too late the canon stone thunder there's nothing to plunder. I'm an over 40 victim of fate.
When I see them change isles to avoid me. It's time to look elsewhere
Driver psychology is a funny thing. The guy behind me had his hand kind of resting on top of his steering wheel or his whole arm on there. There is something about that body language that made me feel like I was going too slow. I sped up, but it didn't seem to affect him. He didn't tailgate. Maybe he's just resting.

Came across a YouTube channel about wisdom for old people got some good ideas. I think. It was about why we wake up at 3 o'clock in the morning, then while in the tub my left chest area started aching. Added some cold water and it I should take the tub temperature - if it's 105 I might expect such things if it's 98.6 maybe not when it comes to Mama bear it's prudent not to poke her but me thinks her bark is worse than her bite… I m increasingly willing to take my lumps… it may not have been worth the risk but now it is b

Robin said feathers ruffled and hackles up. She's even said panties in a bun bunch but not in polite company .

Pickle ball Sue is coming over and the house is "so dirty" Robin said. She just picked up a cashew and she already vacuumed yesterday… hmm.
A clean house and especially clean floors are a high priority for her. I respect that and try to help… working on it

Whether it's in Ukraine vs Russia , or versus China and the rest of the world for tariffs, Trump think he's a great dealmaker maybe he thinks he's the greatest of all time and he knows. he's got the lobby behind him or at least they're using him so he's trying to use them too. It reminds me of Gracie jiu-jitsu where they had some thing unique but it's been figured out a long time ago by other martial artist, and because the Gracie Brothers were not physically imposing as much as their opponents once they were figured out, they were defeated almost trivialized with Trump. It's the same thing his dealmaking style has been figured out, he may think he's the strongest guy on the block with the greatest military. He may very well be wrong about that and about his other weapon the dollar, which is also under attack - largely because the occupation weaponized it and the world says no.

there are three singers I can think of whose voices striker a cord so much that it knocks me off my seat, Aggie Audra and Misty Boyce- with Misty. I can't tell sometimes if it's her voice or her keyboard. " got booze on your breath and you smell like death"., Lord Huron.

Can women throw a ball over hand just like a man or is there some physiological difference that prevents that?

Dad called on his religious roots as he neared the end… I'm reconnecting with mine now. His and mine differ but I respect his… not into teams be it in sports or worshipping God.

Bono sings about "all the colors bleed into one." Should we be glad that we may finally be returning to our roots and after hundreds of generations, returning to our Afro roots, shedding and weeding out those pesky, darn Neanderthal genes and traits? Me thinks… there's nothing wrong with anyone. %you're okay, we're okay

Regarding Adam and Even is it be even or get even?

after being lambasted yesterday for not acknowledging her, I'm reminded of some thing check in the bar made tender said all girls are a little bit nuts and her boyfriend Josh said yes it's just a matter of how much you'll put up with, but then I realize that after what we did in the morning, the very least I "" owed her was acknowledgment, but her deafness played a part in "it."

She's figured out what went wrong with our/her google drive/play and why we're paying $x/month. Then she explains what she's doing today and I listen intently, hoping that I'll remember it. Her day will be quite unlike mine… pickle ball, grocery and checking out a potential pre-school for Jude with Kayla, Ross and Louie… she's also been looking for a picture of her hair which she likes… she found it in a video of Jude saying "eggggs"… aka one of his first words My day will include trying to replace the frost-free spigot with Tyler's help and direction… crawl space here I come .

When it comes to politicians, I use the would I buy used car from this person? Guess who I'm talking about
William Penn he seemed like a nice guy, but I didn't know I'm so I can't say for sure
In case you missed it, his face is on an oatmeal box
Watching a YouTube channel called religion for breakfast today's topic is Jesus in Islam an interview with Dr. Gabriel side, Reynolds interesting but it reminds me that religion is a team sport and volatile and leading to violence or at least contention
According to Dr. Reynolds in the Quran, it says that Jesus wasn't even crucified. Can you imagine saying that to your Christian friends I can't
So my exposure to religious debate is through surrogates like Dr. Reynolds and the host of religion for breakfast. They are tackling tough questions that my country people will not, and they're not because they are convinced their eternal salvation and avoiding burning in hell relies on believing the mainstream Christian narrative, our founding fathers did not.
The founding fathers may have been geniuses in some areas, possibly even a religion in a case or two but generally, they were just skeptical, inquirer, or at least curious and not dumbfounded and down down
So to discuss religion with my Hoosier, neighbors would be like saying I'm a New England Patriots fan, and they all being Colts fans would might instantly decry me
So I can learn about religion by reading books or watching YouTube and I can discuss it only with the man upstairs and perhaps one or two people that I actually know
And those one or two people are not on the same page as me or each other
I can think of one or two other people I'd like to be able to discuss religion with as well. Maybe I can at least in one case and maybe I can't.
With that in mind after 10 minutes of the YouTube, I'm gonna switch to music it's going to be some of the usual 1st to 11 Tom Sawyer, the cast alloys House of the rising Sun and Dennis Quaid and Cowboy Junkies
And probably Lord Huron too
Getting the stitches removed from my head this morning shouldn't of mowed the lawn all those years without a hat

I have to watch first an ad for marvel comics movie. It looks quite violent as so many American movies are that's why I like foreign movies sometimes on Netflix maybe their movies are typically violent too but the ones that make it from there to Netflix generally are not.
been up since 3 o'clock with which isn't particularly unusual will have to take a nap… and stay off the roof.
Watching Tom Sawyer, and I thought I caught a glimpse of Audrey's underwear sticking out the top of her jeans. She may have confirmed it when she pulled her shirt down.

Or it could've been the lighting

Or is Audra wearing spanks after all her tummies very flat?
Watching her move is a celebration of the female form and figure
Then it's Eleanor, Lily, and the other coy sister singing a house of the rising Sun. I used to mostly just watch Lily dance, but the other girls moves are pretty cool too.
I would be shocked if Lily is not wearing spanks.
Time to wash my hair, but I need to keep the soap out of my eyes so I can watch these videos
Just two days ago, Robin commented on how much work and expense it is to stay beautiful. She was pointing to the red polish on her toes.

In God's grace forevermore - that sums up heaven to me
I appreciate my friend concerns and warning about going to hell but I take it with the grain of salt. They're sources. I take with a grain of salt too.
I walked out of the closet with clothes to rotate with summer ones. Robin laughed because my jeans were just hooked around about loop. It was a reminder, however, that I should hook up around two belt loops, and distribute the load.
Putting a shirt on without unbuttoning it first is proving to be a disaster, especially with stitches in my head
Went out to the secret bathroom and took a leak it's private, but if anybody's lurking and sees me, I just say I'm checking the Plumbing mine that is
So what came first the chicken or the egg the male or the female at the moment I'm voting for males because of women had come first they certainly wouldn't have created us the way we are
To repair the roof at the lodge buy some 10 footers
And can I make up my own mind? Who will I burn a hell eternally if I do?
watching Jesus in Islam, the interview with Dr. Gabriel said Reynolds on religion for breakfast and he says that according to the Quran Jesus was a profit, but he was immortal man. He wasn’t the sum of God he didn’t create the world. He wasn’t the savior the you say even about him what do Hindus in Buddhist say?

Dr. Gabriel says there's very little in the Quran about Jesus and what there is is mostly from apocryphal sources and not from the canon gospels
There's probably a lot of discussion and comments, etc. about which of the Castelow sisters is the prettiest I would just weigh in by saying this one has the prettiest eyes, this one the prettiest nose and this one, the prettiest mouth
but I think Lily is the best dancer
I guess it's hard to dance with the banjo or guitar in your hands
I surf for final song while I soap up in the tub it’ll be Cowboy Junkies Good Friday because the visuals aren’t as important on this one, although they are nice
"What will I tell you when you ask me why I'm crying will I point to the red tail hawk soaring or it's pretty down below gently trembling Cowboy Junkies Good Friday
If I think for even a moment that I'm moving too fast, then I am
Then it's those final feet also by the Cowboy Junkies another one where the visuals aren't quite as important other than Margo's good looking pretty
These are the only two cowboys Turkey songs I listen to lately for the last year or so anyway, I'm burned out on the other one
Sweet chain Jane
I thought to tell you about my premonition, I changed my mind and laid back down" Cowboy Junkies
No sense protesting the time you got you gotta walk down every road… no sense pretending you’re what you’re not you got the shoulder every load” Cowboy Junkies
I'll say and I mean it I'm not uncomfortable at any church. I'm pretty much equally comfortable at most.
On the tube, Sheryl Crow My Favorite Mistake
I'm discouraged from singing, snapping my fingers or clapping, but I can't stop any of them. I've got to meet the day and a claps a good way.
All I know is you're my favorite mistake"
You're my favorite mistake your secret lover woman they will come. They will go these lyrics or sung by women. Were they written by them? What the heck did they mean?
Then on a two perhaps coincidentally a younger Margot singing Sweet Jane
"Anyone who played apart, wouldn't turn around and hate it… Lou Reed
Thought I'd overplayed worn out this song, but she's making it new again
Don't know if journaling is my favorite or least favorite thing. All I know is I can't seem to stop.
"Heavenly widened roses seem to whisper to me" Lou Reed finally know what that means
Next time the tube as I file, my big toe, Dennis sings life is like a mountain railway
I probably should look and see what dirt they dug up on William Penn. …Penn name
“ where we meet the superintendent God, the father God, the son with a happy, joyous greeting Larry Pilgrim be welcome home”
I wonder if it's as described by the bandwagon
Those are my roots and I ain't abandoning them them on the tube the girls sing 7 mile Road Eleanor Lily and I can't remember the others name
But sure is nice

"Won't you take me home"
Follow a very predictively on the tube by Dennis singing I'll fly
That's good because it's when I don't have to watch real close. It's time to move on and start the day. My morning bath routine has ended. I take a baggie out of my robe pocket. It contained white goat cheddar cheese empty now, but I'll reuse it. It won't do any good in that pocket it might in another.

After a minute or two on hairdryer, I still get the message about the port being wet. I wonder if that's his BS or should I click on dismiss or emergency charge this is a losing battle I think. One of many, but that's life

The reacher Grabber, good for lots of things not just reaching and grabbing and lifting although right now I'm lifting the toilet seat with it don't have to bend down and I don't have to open and close it
It's a gem of a tool, unlike many others which try to hurt me. The only time this hurts me is when I trip over it.

And good morning America they're honoring 50 years of moms on good morning America. Next Sunday is Mother's Day so it is well-deserved and it's also national national teachers day and they are recognizing teacher through the year Mr. Jesus Perez.

don't be getting smart with Mother nature, she'll kick your ass from here to China and back again

Just wondering if there's consciousness in the afterlife?

When it comes to politicians, I use the would I buy used car from this person? Guess who I'm talking about
William Penn he seemed like a nice guy, but I didn't know I'm so I can't say for sure
In case you missed it, his face is on an oatmeal box
Watching a YouTube channel called religion for breakfast today's topic is Jesus in Islam an interview with Dr. Gabriel side, Reynolds interesting but it reminds me that religion is a team sport and volatile and leading to violence or at least contention
According to Dr. Reynolds in the Quran, it says that Jesus wasn't even crucified. Can you imagine saying that to your Christian friends I can't
So my exposure to religious debate is through surrogates like Dr. Reynolds and the host of religion for breakfast. They are tackling tough questions that my country people will not, and they're not because they are convinced their eternal salvation and avoiding burning in hell relies on believing the mainstream Christian narrative, our founding fathers did not.
The founding fathers may have been geniuses in some areas, possibly even a religion in a case or two but generally, they were just skeptical, inquirer, or at least curious and not dumbfounded and down down
So to discuss religion with my Hoosier, neighbors would be like saying I'm a New England Patriots fan, and they all being Colts fans would might instantly decry me
So I can learn about religion by reading books or watching YouTube and I can discuss it only with the man upstairs and perhaps one or two people that I actually know
And those one or two people are not on the same page as me or each other
I can think of one or two other people I'd like to be able to discuss religion with as well. Maybe I can at least in one case and maybe I can't.
With that in mind after 10 minutes of the YouTube, I'm gonna switch to music it's going to be some of the usual 1st to 11 Tom Sawyer, the cast alloys House of the rising Sun and Dennis Quaid and Cowboy Junkies
And probably Lord Huron too
Getting the stitches removed from my head this morning shouldn't of mowed the lawn all those years without a hat
I have to watch first an ad for marvel comics movie. It looks quite violent as so many American movies are that's why I like foreign movies sometimes on Netflix maybe their movies are typically violent too but the ones that make it from there to Netflix generally are not.
been up since 3 o'clock with which isn't particularly unusual will have to take a nap… and stay off the roof.
Watching Tom Sawyer, and I thought I caught a glimpse of Audrey's underwear sticking out the top of her jeans. She may have confirmed it when she pulled her shirt down.
Or it could've been the lighting

Or is Audra wearing spanks after all her tummies very flat?
Watching her move is a celebration of the female form and figure
Then it's Eleanor, Lily, and the other coy sister singing a house of the rising Sun. I used to mostly just watch Lily dance, but the other girls moves are pretty cool too.
I would be shocked if Lily is not wearing spanks.
Time to wash my hair, but I need to keep the soap out of my eyes so I can watch these videos
Just two days ago, Robin commented on how much work and expense it is to stay beautiful. She was pointing to the red polish on her toes.
In God's grace forevermore - that sums up heaven to me
I appreciate my friend concerns and warning about going to hell but I take it with the grain of salt. They're sources. I take with a grain of salt too.
I walked out of the closet with clothes to rotate with summer ones. Robin laughed because my jeans were just hooked around about loop. It was a reminder, however, that I should hook up around two belt loops, and distribute the load.
Putting a shirt on without unbuttoning it first is proving to be a disaster, especially with stitches in my head
Went out to the secret bathroom and took a leak it's private, but if anybody's lurking and sees me, I just say I'm checking the Plumbing mine that is
So what came first the chicken or the egg the male or the female at the moment I'm voting for males because of women had come first they certainly wouldn't have created us the way we are
To repair the roof at the lodge buy some 10 footers
And can I make up my own mind? Who will I burn a hell eternally if I do?
watching Jesus in Islam, the interview with Dr. Gabriel said Reynolds on religion for breakfast and he says that according to the Quran Jesus was a profit, but he was immortal man. He wasn't the sum of God he didn't create the world. He wasn't the savior the you say even about him what do Hindus in Buddhist say?
Dr. Gabriel says there's very little in the Quran about Jesus and what there is is mostly from apocryphal sources and not from the canon gospels
There's probably a lot of discussion and comments, etc. about which of the Castelow sisters is the prettiest I would just weigh in by saying this one has the prettiest eyes, this one the prettiest nose and this one, the prettiest mouth
but I think Lily is the best dancer
I guess it's hard to dance with the banjo or guitar in your hands
I surf for final song while I soap up in the tub it'll be Cowboy Junkies Good Friday because the visuals aren't as important on this one, although they are nice
"What will I tell you when you ask me why I'm crying will I point to the red tail hawk soaring or it's pretty down below gently trembling Cowboy Junkies Good Friday
If I think for even a moment that I'm moving too fast, then I am

Then it's those final feet also by the Cowboy Junkies another one where the visuals aren't quite as important other than Margo's good looking pretty
These are the only two cowboys Turkey songs I listen to lately for the last year or so anyway, I'm burned out on the other one
Sweet chain Jane
I thought to tell you about my premonition, I changed my mind and laid back down" Cowboy Junkies
No sense protesting the time you got you gotta walk down every road… no sense pretending you're what you're not you got the shoulder every load" Cowboy Junkies
I'll say and I mean it I'm not uncomfortable at any church. I'm pretty much equally comfortable at most.
On the tube, Sheryl Crow My Favorite Mistake
I'm discouraged from singing, snapping my fingers or clapping, but I can't stop any of them. I've got to meet the day and a claps a good way.
All I know is you're my favorite mistake"
You're my favorite mistake your secret lover woman they will come. They will go these lyrics or sung by women. Were they written by them? What the heck did they mean?
Then on a two perhaps coincidentally a younger Margot singing Sweet Jane
"Anyone who played apart, wouldn't turn around and hate it… Lou Reed
Thought I'd overplayed worn out this song, but she's making it new again
Don't know if journaling is my favorite or least favorite thing. All I know is I can't seem to stop.
"Heavenly widened roses seem to whisper to me" Lou Reed finally know what that means
Next time the tube as I file, my big toe, Dennis sings life is like a mountain railway
I probably should look and see what dirt they dug up on William Penn. …Penn name
" where we meet the superintendent God, the father God, the son with a happy, joyous greeting Larry Pilgrim be welcome home"
I wonder if it's as described by the bandwagon
Those are my roots and I ain't abandoning them them on the tube the girls sing 7 mile Road Eleanor Lily and I can't remember the others name
But sure is nice
"Won't you take me home"
Follow a very predictively on the tube by Dennis singing I'll fly
That's good because it's when I don't have to watch real close. It's time to move on and start the day. My morning bath routine has ended. I take a baggie out of my robe pocket. On the tube, Weather with Maci Tetrick WRTV
My excuse for not doing an excellent job getting an A+ etc. has been for a long time. I don't do this for a living. I will add to it in this inflationary environment that I don't do this for a living and I can't afford the people that do.
We tend to think that a mother's love for the children is purely genuine love for the children and that the children's love for the mother and the protective instincts in all cases is because of pure love, but it's also because that person is a character in your life and is very important one but not as important as ourselves because of our instinctive self-centeredness
So if there are 144,000 remaining afterwards, but it will be 1000 years until the final thing I've got to wonder what is going on who are the good guys and who aren't?

I must be cheap because I've never donated to 1st to 11 but I do like and subscribe and view that's worth something I think
Mesmerization can only go so far

I'm not comparing Audrey to the 90-year-old woman I saw in the wheelchair talking about her trials at the hospital yesterday at least not on the outside on the inside they may be virtually identical. God bless them.
It Bears repeating the second I feel like I'm rushing. I need to slow down.
On the tube, they sing You Shook Me All Night Long 1st to 11. I need to give Matt and the other guys credit to.
As usual after every video they appeal to you to donate or do I click on Spotify or Payton, for more support I wish them well but don't
That elderly woman at the hospital had fallen who is the usual story a man Dexter Delbert looked about 75 and how are you doing before you had heard about the phone? She said just fine then said well not really on the tube Lord her not dead yet.
I can imagine her 70 years ago she might've looked just like Audra
Since my mom was the only one to ever complement my voice (like a young Elvis, she said" I can be pretty sure I'll never be a rockstar
This morning, enjoying Lord Huron and Misty voice, Boyce even though she's singing back up
Well, life life is bigger bigger than you and you are not me the blanks that I would go to R.E.M. via Audra
Every whisper of every waking hour, I'm choosing my confessions
I must be a very annoying fellow. I said the thermos on the stove forgot about it put it on very low, but it's still popped the bottom off and scared her. She also said she doesn't like me to clap why do you do that? She asked I meant to say it's how I great the new day but I didn't.
Text stocker down as I drive to the lodge to pick up the chainsaw and other tools. I think it's legalized gambling. I guess it's no worse than sports gambling. At least it's financing something better than billionaires.
Or is it?
I'm Bloomberg as I start my drive to Salt Creek it's a guy who said he used to work for Peter Teal, and he sang there are elements of a Ponzi scheme in the market. Those that keep jumping in or adding to the riches of those who are already in but he's not sure how it will end.
Call Tom keen is the host this morning as my thermos that fell over on the stove now leaks on my seat
But I've got McDonald's napkins, close hand
The guy says something about perhaps the way we are as a country and an empire I didn't hear the rest and I take a sip. It will be nice to have some coffee.
He goes on to say that Franklin Roosevelt was not a socialist was not a communist until he saw the effects of the great depression. That's when I switched over.
It's 713 as I stop at the light before getting on 465 south I need to remember to be a considerate driver and nothing more. Most of all I need to be a safe driver watch out for the other guy keep an eye on the Blindspot, etc. brake lights too
I navigate my way over to the second lane from the left and maybe I'll go all the way to the fast lane. It's a delicate ballet. And a potentially dangerous one
I go to the fast lane for a minute to get around a slow car, but the young whippersnappers and others in the fast lane push me back to the right it's not worth it. I need to remember to slow down smell the roses how slow can I go? That's my slogan this morning.

The sign says roadwork 70 East Left Ln. closed but is there a pro Sam Jones Parkway Expressway I don't see it hopefully I'll see through
It looks OK so far, but there's a semi right in front of me coming up to Works. I have time to get around them before the lane ends.
Then half a mile ahead I see an arrow pointing to the left to the right I guess that means the left flame will be closed ahead. I'm only two or 3 miles from 69 south hopefully it won't be backed up too much.
I guess Nicole said she's arriving at 7:30 PM. She wanted suggestions for a restaurant for that later arrival and a grocery store. I gave it to her. She was appreciative very much she said.
I go back to the radio, and Bloomberg touting their expertise and greatness, and I hear the word ad council to me that means propaganda
Not necessarily, I signal to the right and somebody is nice and lets me in. I'm only half a mile from 69 south.
Tom Keenan says we have some really interesting guests this morning but I'm thinking about how I peed as much yesterday after drinking no coffee in the morning as I do on days that I drink 3 cups what's going on there?
The guess says the number one mistake is to go completely bullish or completely Berish. She has a thick accent, but I can't tell what type I move the ice pack from my back to my right shoulder. The operation in two days will be on my left.
Commercial says the IRS is starting to garnish paychecks. This company wants to help you this morning. Robin wanted to help me. She said those cucumbers will get the walnuts soggy. I said I'll probably eat the walnuts. I mean the cucumber is right off the bat and then I thought I'm finally eating walnuts after my mom recommended them 60 years ago.
I wish I'd listen to advice and my dad's about many things now it may be too late, but I will endeavor to persevere like Grant supposedly said in the outlaw Josie Wales
He was talking to the Indian chief "" I'm happy to do this stream of consciousness and too lazy added it, but since I don't have a writing contract, this is the next best thing
That's too lazy to edit it. I know I'll never be a Hemingway Shakespeare or any of those other writers so I just have to enjoy or endeavor to persevere
Next the guest says I continue to believe it's the strongest economy. I'm guessing she needs a USA.
I see a man standing next to his motorcycle on the shoulder of I 69. I guess it's broken.
I'm not ready for full autonomous vehicles yet although someday I will be I think meanwhile, I'm happy for the safety features. They are gradually implementing. I hope it will be in time to save many lives.
The guest mentions Switzerland maybe that's what her accent is Swiss
Today if there's time I will bury a book it will probably be wandering allowed allowed
Next to gas says you need to be thinking about the dollar in particular and then I missed the rest because I'm thinking that I wish the strike through feature had come through in the PDF that I printed
I take my foot off the gas as I prepared to pour coffee into my cup and hope it won't spill again. So far so good
There's a tiny bit left in the thermos. I'll leave it there. It would just make a little drip on the floor anyway it's one of those cases of six or 1/2 dozen of the other. I'll take the six. I shift the ice pack to my left shoulder and noticed there's a dent on the thermos that's where it hit the tile kitchen floor

I'm thinking about the kids as I pass the traffic officer head sign and the two workers dangerously close on the shoulder. I wonder how they're doing I wonder how many more views Tyler's video it was about a fish the first one of the season and I wonder how Kayla is doing I think she's working today and Ross has Louis Beville have Jude, Robbins going to Muncie for a medical appointment with her dad we're all struggling at times we all have our travails which either means troubles in French or blah blah blah
I pass my P Scott peace spot, but the gate is closed at the big parking lot by Bargersville athletic club. Fortunately, I don't need to go yet.
At the four-way stop I'm glad I'm traveling east because it's all backed up from the west. There's some workers there at the intersection and as usual they're all standing around, but I guess two guys are working back at the sign.
Rivian is reporting lower sales and their stock is down in the premarket same for BMW, which has a big drop in China. They're largest market. We're at least I think that's what she said
Clever Tom Kane makes a joke about Prime Minister Carney, knowing about his blockers I guess that's a hockey reference as well as a reference to his conversation with Donald Trump yesterday who still insist that Canada should become our 51st state
Not sure if Trump is unhinged demented, psychotic, or a genius, but it's probably something in between kind of like the results from my cardio light medicine induced cardio test yesterday
We share a flag day birthday his 10 years before mine and his doctor says he's in perfect health. Mine does not.
I think to myself God I wish I could stop this stream of consciousness diarrhea of the mouth, but then I think I don't want to think or pray for that do I I'm just not sure
I think about what Pete said at least I think it was Pete that I have too much time on my hands, but I don't think that's the case. We're supposed to have sushi lunch next week
Do you agree that if we have a inflationary shock due to tariffs that it will be transitory they asked the guest it should be he says, but meanwhile, I'm enjoying three hour old coffee, surprising that it tastes good still after sitting in the pot sitting on the tub being heated up on the stove and falling on the floor, but it's a good brand it's Lavalle. That's the way it goes. I wonder what they add to it to make it taste good compared to some of the other brands that don't
As for Canada becoming a 51st state, Carney says it will never happen, but he looks forward to new meetings with Trump at the G7 Trump however, says we don't need their markets. We don't need to sell to them. They need to sell to us. He's gonna make deals and he's gonna dictate the terms. Let's see what comes out in the wash.
As we approach County Road 300 S. Bloomberg goes off the air. It's just static. I see the firetruck at the Indiana Memorial business and it's time to switch to water because I've drank all the coffee too. I need to pee and I may stop at Casey's we'll see it's just ahead but I can wait. I've got my ripple bottle in to.
I decide not to go inside. It looks pretty busy. I don't wanna wait. We're have to use the ladies room and have those looks given to me. There's a camera on the corner of the building. I'm hoping that I'm out of its view.

I hear voices and decide to speed the process up. Everything goes smoothly enough. Just then, the Bargersville fire and paramedic truck arrives
I pass the Indian Creek learning center, so I'm on the back roads and this will be busy and there's no way for people to safely pass most places so when somebody tailgates, I generally look for a place to pull to the side sometimes it's climes cabinetry other times it's the intersection of Ford Road
There is a line of parents leaving the school. I guess they've dropped the kids off and it's precarious for them to get back and make that left turn in front of me. Somebody darts out I slow down. I understand what they're going through. It ain't easy Bob Greezy.
I've said it ain't easy Bob Greezy in front of Jude, a number of times he doesn't react I guess he has no reference point and I haven't tried to explain it but he's interested in words sometimes he'll repeat something like I said impossible the other day and he kind of said impossible under his breath I think he storing these for future use
The road goes up and down as I go over rolling hills and pass Indian Creek Road I'm on 300 W. approaching Klein cabinetry, but there's nobody tailgating me on the left. I see some flags out of the corner of my eyes. One might be confederate also see a couple of Angus cows they're black. I wouldn't say that ironic but it's interesting
I pour some water awkwardly into my coffee cup. I want to get those last grounds and I take my foot off the gas. I need all the help I can get to make this journey successful from the cradle to the grave that's a reference to the song that Dennis sings Kait that is Albert Brumley is a writer.
Now it's 92.3 the song is by Cage the Elephant
It ain't no rest for the wicked
But it just ended and enrolled into something that I don't know or like so I switch to my Disn card whatever you wanna call it and it's come together
I mean it's get together by the Youngbloods
Come on people smile on your brother. Try to love one another right now
My phone chimes I think that might be a message coming in which I probably should ignore since I'm driving then I pass the sign that says junk removal and the cows on that precarious hill. The address is 8910 in front of me is some roadkill yuck
I realize that this stream of consciousness is becoming increasingly in an but the song continues smile on your brother. Try to love one another right now and that makes it better.
Regardless of the message, I click on the next song
An old white pick up truck darts out in front of me at Ford Ridge Road guns engine I slow down. I don't honk this time. I don't wanna repeat what happened with Ken Hunter. I figured the guys got someplace he's gotta be Passing the neighborhood, Church of God the sign says Easter service 11 or something Easter egg hunt after that and I remember the YouTube videos that I saw around Easter that discussed the pros and cons history etc. of Easter is it a pagan holiday or something else?
More roadkill just before that a pick up truck pulling a trailer with equipment on it blast past me then I see the conveyor belt, but just before that I see the tree on the right that is apparently been hit several times by cars at the curve
I'm hoping the farmhouse will be in good shape and that I won't have any surprises to deal with. We do have a new cleaning crew they will come for the first time when these guests leave in four days. I'm hoping that goes well too.

I will of cars honk when I pass the Flesher's house. Susan was the Cleaner,? for a number of years and I consider them friends. I will bury as many books as I can on our 50 acres. Maybe someone will dig them up in the future. It's probably not the best marketing plan but better than nothing. Then I passed the rough, crossing the graded bridge with the big bump where motorcyclist were warned to slow down. Or at least they used to be I don't see the sign anymore
On the box, the ghost song by The Doors and I see that Robin's Gatesville country store has a for sale sign right smack in front of it
The vast radian Beach and the cool jeweled moon Robinson I mean, Jim Morrison says, and I wonder if somebody will pick up where Robin left off will the towards be passed and the store remain in this little hamlet that I call share Sherman
The big, beautiful modern house on the hill comes interview as I approach the fishers. She said somebody she knows claim that house. It's a guy that lives in California part of the year.
Children's smug in the warm something of infancy, Jim says next in the song ghost dance?
It's actually called ghost song and he's quite the poet and don't he know it as he rest eternally in France with people chipping away at his monument. I pass who I think is one of the Waltman boys weed whacking the ditch he waves I not my hand head
I'm half a mile from the farmhouse and the urgency to pay predictively increases dramatically
I may not even have time to put my shoes on squirrels pass in front of me
I had a friend who was a big baseball player back in high school. He could throw that speedball Bayou make you look like a fool Bruce Springsteen yup. Glory days
Ran into him at a roadside bar we went in had a few drinks, but all he could talk about was glory days
Well, there was a girl who lived up the block back in school. She could turn all the boys heads.
Every now and then after she puts the kids to bed, we go and have a few drinks
She and her husband Bobby they split up. I guess it's been two years now.
On the box neon pill the second K elephant song I've heard today. It's cage the elephant Then never tear us apart by INXS
I was standing and you were there two worlds colliding, and then
I'm sure it's been said many times before but the walnut looks like a brain. At least the meat does.
It's something unpredictable but in the end, it's right I hope you have the time of your life. Green Day good riddance is on the box.
There's a car behind me at the stoplight. I think it's a lady and her holding her hands at 11:30 and 1230 give or take on the steering wheel. I think guys hold it with one hand on the bottom but we're not the safest drivers in the world. Come to think of it I think they recommend 10 o'clock and 2 o'clock as the best
As I munch on the walnuts, I noticed that there's half a slice of a cucumber in there. I take a little bite out of the corner and it seems OK even though it's starting to turn a little bit brown just a little bit I'll eat it just like the avocado I might mix for guacamole at lunch. I'm enjoying the walnuts I can eat just a few and I'm satiated and it's not like cashew where I can't stop. The next thing will be to try to make walnut butter because when I bought was woeful Mother mother Roshan I have heard your call. I have wanted to sell your waves since I was 3 feet tall Jimmy Buffett.

Yes, I am a pirate 200 years too late the canon stone thunder there's nothing to plunder. I'm an over 40 victim of fate.
When I see them change isles to avoid me. It's time to look elsewhere
Driver psychology is a funny thing. The guy behind me had his hand kind of resting on top of his steering wheel or his whole arm on there. There is something about that body language that made me feel like I was going too slow. I sped up, but it didn't seem to affect him. He didn't tailgate. Maybe he's just resting.

if you want to be happy, successful, healthy, wealthy whatever then pay close attention to the important stuff and don't worry about tuning out the rest the junk, especially gravity, gravity, gravity, the older I get the more it becomes a foe.

Heaven… "populated" by the peeps who loved, believed in and submitted to God. Is it a Peaceful place because such peeps became peaceful and kind somewhere along the line? Might he bring the dry bones of those who did back to life, physically or spiritually? Would they inhabit heaven and contribute to its peace and tranquility?

Civilization Child Sacrifice? Context / Deities
Canaanites Yes Molech, Baal, crisis rituals
Israelites Rare / Condemned Molech (when it occurred)
Mesopotamians Rare / Not routine Possibly in legends
Egyptians No N/A
Aztecs / Maya Yes Tlaloc, others (rain/fertility)
Greeks / Romans Rare / Mythical Often seen as barbaric

Not proud that during the altar call on Mother's Day I briefly thought about bug spray, since we'd be picnicking later, and my ankles were bare- but today's message inspired little more… did however wonder about speaking in tongues as he said something like 'sasa akala" and some other "words?"

The thesises "reportedly/supposedly" put forth by Carl Jung and others that women are basically evil, and basically just trying to rip men off and use us, etc. or fallacies in my opinion. I think they are driven by priorities that require them to use a bit of "guile" since they don't have the muscle that we use against them for our own selfish needs - that doesn't mean they should rule us , or we rule them, or anyone rule anyone, although there are laws that if mutually agreed-upon must be enforced for the benefit of everyone in a society.

If I'm going to be in a sling for six weeks and rehabilitating for another 4 1/2 months, I need to learn from lazy people the first will be to wear no socks or none at all, but probably the former

Peter Schiff is talking about the fan and the conundrum they're in. He said every time they make one problem better they make the other one worse he's talking about inflation versus full employment. It reminds me of the human body, especially as we age you make one problem better and another one worse for example they say you should take a statin to lower cholesterol, but if you take it into high dose, you'll get dementia. Here's an example of disinformation on YouTube channels. I heard yesterday that one container coming from China had a $400 million tariff applied to it today. I hear on another channel that it was the entire container ship which might've contained many hundreds of containers.
The cool thing about Jesus is we can talk to him about anything and ask him anything. Sometimes we get answers sometimes we don't at least that's my experience but I think it's worth a try. I think he's hearing I think the universe that he is the king of is tallying our request what they HE does with it is another thing.
On the tube, don't stop believing Audra and First to 11
Of course she ends the song and follows with an appeal for donations and to buy merch from them
Next algorithm starts Tom Sawyer again it's 1st to 11. I guess they have bills to pay.
In this one, she dances like a priestess
She appears to be almost in an altered state, which probably happens when you're the singer in a band sometimes
She trumps the twerks
As usual, the boys in the band deserve equal credit
I asked the Man upstairs - did she…..herself three times? I think He said; no, probably or don't ask the Songs followed by an advertisement for kitty litter featuring a young "" Catwoman Nick say saying You Shook Me All Night Long and I watch her eyes for any inkling about what she's thinking "made a meal out of me and come back for more"… jmmm

Bloomberg, some of the guests are starting to crack and tell the truth about how they really feel but the schills - the ones whose livelihoods depend squarely on the stock market aka equities are still touting the party line and the public listens and most obey…

"More than what you need to know is what you need to think about", Bloomberg's teaser. Are they manipulating us with cherry picked data, unbiasedly informing us, both /or something else?
The lobby, the lobby for laws loopholes, and legislation to reach themselves

They lobby for laws, loopholes, and legislation to enrich themselves
I'm not saying that playing a harp in heaven and singing praises to the Lord eternally wouldn't be an honor it would be. But I wonder if that description is accurate?
I have nothing against the carpenter bees they're fascinating, but we have rights too, so I don't wanna make this a hospitable place for them if you know what I mean
And the same goes for the flying squirrels whenever they call the honeycreepers that made a mess of my shop
Soon as I have this annual battle with the bees and the hornets and the yellow jackets, it's apparent that they know when I'm armed, and when I'm not
As people rush to get to church this morning, it occurs to me that Pastor rhymes with master. I doubt it's intentional, but I wonder if it means anything?
Four days after the rotator cuff surgery, I'm able to use a bathtub very carefully and I realize that these things I've been practicing for the last few years for other reasons are coming in handy. I can lift the toilet seat with the retro Grabber. I can put everything on the right hand side of the tub the remote and the phone fit into the window handles everything falling into place at the moment time will tell if it continues in that vein or if I fall flat on my face, God forbid on my affected shoulder.
It's an example of how some things that you learn can crossover Janu areas of need
I hope to stick to my normal routine as much as possible, but of course there will be deviations in this case
One thing I believe believe is it will be more important than ever to follow the house so can you go rule otherwise I will get stupid prizes for stupid games
On the tube, Audrey sings November Rain. She's amused a muse if I ever saw one. That's followed by a commercial for Anderson windows. They say this is your big chance this month only get your new windows and you don't have to pay until 27 spend that money on a pony or something. They say it reminds me that I was prescribed her Cortizone hydrocodone I mean and that's from a pharmaceutical company a.k.a. a drug dealer. I'll stick with NP approved.
I finish shaving and then brush my teeth. Meanwhile, Siri is not cooperating as per usual.
I think dictation voice recognition is as dependent on phone position, as is the light which turns on unexpectedly when I don't want it to, but it is positional, and there is rhyme and reason to it I'm just not rhyme and reason in it
Not Ryen and reasoning it very well, but I'm trying to learn and I'm getting better
I remember what the NP said yesterday about drying your armpits. I will try that technique.
Ha ha
There's still paste in the crest densify tube. I'll use it today then throw it out even though I can get a few more days under the circumstances. I've reappointed diminishing returns.
I'm wearing my neck tie sling it works well in the bathtub better than the one that's so fancy that they gave me on the tube she sings losing my religion
And as usual, and maybe more so the reacher Grabber is coming in handy as a hand
I have no servant and no humanoid robot so they
Every waking minute, I'm choosing my confessions trying to keep my eye on you like a lost something wounded fool, R.E.M.

What if all these fantasies come flailing around I've said too much. It's just a dream that's me in the corner. That's me in the spotlight losing my religion.
The first time I had sex and then looked at the girl lay there next to me. Renee was Kirsten. I couldn't believe my eyes I've been until then. I only see this. She was three. Dimensional
Should we always be absolutely honest with our spouse I think so, except for rare occasions where what you tell them might be devastating to either one of you I have never arrived at that point, but if I did, I would probably lie
On the tube, wake me up when September ends
Got out of bed before four watch TV for over an hour tubes and business on Bloomberg now in the Tub it's almost exclusively music. Everything that was said in the news in the business news was depressing, repetitive or BS and probably fake contrived and almost certainly biased
And that was across numerous channels aka the one thing they had in common

It was at that point I spilled my coffee / fortunately not the whole cup
On the tube, Audrey sings November Rain on my phones screen reminder, that's been there for about a week that it's time for a colonoscopy. Those polyps need a haircut and hopefully nothing more.
The music video is interrupted by a Toyota commercial. It's the lady in the red dress who's been this folks woman for at least five years and she throws some thing she throws like a girl and says something catchy I like her too.
I'm both stuck on and enjoying the some extent the stream of consciousness lazy writing business or I don't edit anything and I'm doing it and then burying the books. If anybody was curious enough to ask me why I'd say it's because I'm a writer and I wanna be read and they say well why don't you mark it differently and I'd say because nobody's gonna read it now so that strategy is irrelevant
Today Sid's drum kit is made by spaun who I've never heard of Next 1st to 11 and Audrey saying I walk alone by Green Day I think this is several years ago since here was long and crazy otter was just entering the twilight and she said the peak of her power she must gain as much exposure and money money while she can that is why Jung said those things I think Twilight comes too soon. When you're judged by appearances, especially
Been a while back in the tub my lower back hurts and I would like to do my usual morning stretches, but with my arm and a sling made up neck ties I'd probably get stuck and I don't know if Robin could pull me out embarrassing as that would be
There is going to be a 32nd commercial so I do go back to Black rock and it's Wei Lee, Blackrocks, global cheap chief investment strategist a Chinese woman I believe, reflective of their orientation at this time
Being a stream of consciousness, the mistake that apples voice recognition made it says cheap instead of chief will be left. I used to try to strike through them so you know what she had done now since that doesn't work. I just leave them so when you see two words like that together, the first one is usually a mistake made by Siri
Bloomberg lasted only a minute or two now it's back to music the castle and House of the rising Sun. I think we followed by Dennis Quaid or Huron and who knows who else. Lily dances provocatively which I really like. Fifty years ago a Bluegrass "" band like this would've been standing at attention now she doesn't twerk, she doesn't have to. She just has to move a little bit to evoke fantasies in her viewers, - men, and women alike Now it's Mine Forever Lord Huron #MistyBoyce a Muse a.k.a.An Inspiration % what's the story?

" everybody lies, but I never doubt you. I know we'll always be together in my mind yourmine forever."
I watch Misty as this song ends and she looks cryptically over at Ben Snyder and I wonder what the hell? Meanwhile, I'm not remote control under the floor at least and didn't go in the tub and I wonder if I can get out easily with this sling on, probably not. My main intent is to get the remote so I don't have to listen to commercials. I lean over trying to protect my recently operated on shoulder and brace myself with my chin on the edge of the tub and fortunately reach the remote control.
The only casualty is YouTube as I pick up the remote. I accidentally turned the TV off. The next two and possibly last songs are don't stop believing Audra and Ingrid Michaelson the Way I am
Use the thermos. Secondary role and then will wash my body.
A singer in a smoky room, smell of wine and cheap perfume"
I hope to be able to wash myself a little better than yesterday. Meanwhile, Audra sings and I watch her signature moves, fairly simple, direct and effective. Female body is a work of art
So effective that I open my soap filled eyes and despite the burn watch her finale
It is work for burning sensation. Trying to get the soap off my body I again have to use my head to brace against the side of the tub, but find the neck tie. Sling works as a pretty good washcloth.
My next trick, trying to get out of the tub without a Charlie horse interrupting me
Mine is not correct any or disconnect or something like that. Neil, Kurt rush
Odd eyes are telling at specific points in this song when the lyrics either means something to her or they know they mean something to us. They are furtive
Next INXS Suicide Blonde. And there's another muse another time
A.k.a. the 19th. Call
Time to takeoff the wet tie, sling and not slip on the floor
I stopped dictating when Robin comes in she knows I do this, but she doesn't know about the stream of consciousness be a little embarrassing
When you're in a sling, it can be hard to scratch an inch that normally you can reach. I had to use the side of the TV in the living room this time.
Tell Dakota that a Tuesday or Wednesday is best for the ROOFING
Robin and Robin has been so good to me as I recover from the shoulder surgery. I'll take care of that. She says everything from the bed to the coffee maker to help me put my shirt on yes
It makes it makes me want to do better and not clapping in the morning, not snapping my fingers and not repetitively seeing the same line of a song 100 times but I should ask her. How should I prioritize those?
The surgery seems to have gone well except for the bursa. I've developed on my elbow because of that overly complicated sling which means the most important thing don't mess up any other joints.

And I like the appearance in my bicep realities flipped attendant, but I wonder what about if the other one goes is he just trying to plant siege for future surgery sales
I like the doctor, but he had a three day growth of beard. I guess that's just a style.
Camel tell is he's as good as the last guy who came into the room and said hi. I'm the guy that fix his shoulders. I found out he had fixed the governor Shoulder so I felt pretty good about him and so far so good nine or 10 years later.
Heading back to my bicep it makes it look like I actually have one Tyler has no such problem on the tube, amazing Grace by Dennis Quaid - at least his version… “Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come; 'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.”
This morning, I'm able to get my sleeveless T-shirt a.k.a. wife beater on all by myself. I don't know if it's because the flexibility is returning or I've just learned a trick.

I shouldn't call it that
And it's hard to hold a candle in the cold November rain on the tube sung by you know

I hear Robin on the phone. I think she might be talking to her dad trying to iron things out he might be moving in.
Waiting at the bank drive-through and watching the customer try to talk to tellers ear off while we're waiting in our cars makes me think that AI and automation have some advantages
I don't think anybody would talk to AI that long. But who knows
I'm going back to the religion of my forefathers maybe not exactly but that's the direction
Apparently, Trump is a great man or he's just bombastic and maybe that will let him pull it off

People will mostly; see, hear and remember what we don’t want them to, especially about us … we can thank Nature for that.

as I struggle to get the kitchen sink temperature just right so it’ll wash the dishes and not burn me. I think of the automatic systems of some people have and the vacuum cleaners that are programmed so you don’t have to even touch them and all the other modern conveniences that we have always craved, and I think about heaven being described as a place is problems no tears and I wonder about all that is it portrayed that way because we want it to be, or because it is that way? of course there are many that say you’ll never get there. You’ll go to the bad place because you don’t believe these things.

I am not enamored by Donald Trump although I agree with some of his positions and I am not enamored by his opposition but like some of their positions. If we could go right smack down the middle we might have something, but the country doesn't seem to operate that way.

I am skeptical of the claims that the Jewish people are chosen by God to run the world - if that's what some people claim, but I am not smart enough to know the answer to that question. That being said, I still remain skeptical of such claims. I think they are brilliant people but see no concrete evidence that the rest of us are goyum… But maybe we are that or gullible or something else .

as I see the diversity of America compared to many other countries, and I see the intermarriages/"interbreeding" and the commercials on TV that imo encourage us to do that by showing so many interracial marriages/unions I wonder if maybe the Jewish people have been appointed by the God of the universe to bring the races together … I don't know % better humans???

if it's legit bona fide sanctify by the Man upstairs then I hope they know what they're doing… as I watch our country change and Brown, I see genius IQs coming from; India, Asia and the, Middle East, and brawn coming from Africa, so are these and European American team gene pools being fine tuned into Super men and women, or is something else going on - time will tell.

democracy is power at the barrel of a gun like any other form of government which unfortunately, we need pure democracy, however, is worse. we are social beings so we need something to make us cohesive and maintain order, but we don’t need to share decision-making equally with those who only take from the system.
congruently there’s nothing wrong with the homogeneous society. There are risks with that, but there’s nothing wrong with it. with a heterogeneous society, different religions, different ethnic groups each has its own agenda, although might share some of our Americas, founding principles agenda, not enough to offset the turmoil that is rot by unimpeded immigration by those who come here or else sensibly to contribute a good part of the time neither contribute, don’t contribute and intentionally or unintentionally impede prosperity

Trump may or may not be a con man my opinion is yes, and not a capitalist, a capitalist pig… and a modern P.T. Barnum? Hearing about his messages on his "Truth" Social platform asking companies, telling companies to take the tariff hit and not pass it on to what he calls "valued customers", I don't believe he's sincere / me thinks he knows that he and his billionaire friends will be the only ones to benefit, and he doesn't give a flying you know what about middle America other than demanding that they abide by his version of family values and his other worldviews… both of which are perverted.

Apparently, I'm having Aggie moments like I had 20 years ago with faults Gog, whose voice was better, but Audrey is no slouch
With both singers they're off stage conversations are telling they seem so normal and girl next-door, but on stage there's something else
Aggie commented on airplanes how can they fly? They have so many screws and Audra says buy our merch donate on Patreon. They're just trying to make a living. I guess not an easy life, though it may be glamorous "most of the time."
They're both "advertised", at 5 foot eight I doubt it, especially in Audra's case
On a related note, if God didn't want me to do the things I do, He probably would've made me different.

It seems to me that the instructions for the sling after shoulder surgery were written by a sling salesman all the virtues, and that you should wear it all the time somebody wants to sell these things and lots
Trying to be a good grandpa I agreed and repeated what Ross said about pooping outside to the little guy. I shoot a yellow jacket out of the house instead of swatting it and I didn't show him the dead bird on the pergola deck.

The man who is three weeks away from his 69th birthday walked carefully down the basement stairs. It was about 4:15 AM and he was getting on the exercise bike. He had a bowl of Cheerios in one hand with an apple slice on top and a cup of Lavazzia coffee in the other, he thought to himself “better go down carefully” because if he falls his shoulder, which had been operated on two weeks ago might take the brunt of it. It would be better to have to pick up the Cheerios and mop up coffee, then do anything else and cheaper to hire a cleaning person than a surgeon…. The Cleaner’s results would be guaranteed the surgeons would not.

we went to 19th hole Chris and I and we enjoyed the “scenery.””, and talked about it a bit. the next morning it reminds me of a conversation I had with Robin some years ago when she said any other woman that you’ll be with will present the same problems that I do. I’m paraphrasing. It makes me think the women are at least as instinctive as men and survival probably being the greatest driving force for humans makes me think that women have had to be on a lookout for more than just lions and tigers and bears for at least 1 million years. They’ve also had to be on a lookout for men who are either four or against them, and they have developed eyes in the back of their heads a.k.a. their girlfriends men have primarily had to look out for lions and tigers and Bears… while looking for women.

I think you see more women at church because they are more likely to have been traumatized often by sexual abuse and to have been treated like second-class citizens than men are. Women by nature may be more adaptable than men because of the difficulties they encounter, encountered and have frequently overcomes for 1 million years. They are true survivors. We men are comparative ne’er-do-wells, but obviously deserve autonomy and equal billing, because of our own unique characteristics.

The Indy 500 is Sunday so church was held on Friday since it’s only 2 miles from the track and the Pastor said you might go to church in the morning and not be able to get home till 1030 at night because of the traffic. It was a trip down memory lane, reminiscent of “Church Alive” at Drury Inn in 1988. Both culminate with an alter call in an appeal to speak in tongues, although BFWC’s Pastor wasn’t his direct as Pastor Jim, who I recall, asking the children to speak in tongues.

If you compare the congregation at BFWC to Kayla’s church, I think you’d see differences. Her congregation is almost entirely white more affluent, and I think have higher IQs - perhaps substantially higher. As far as I know, only a few of them speak in tongues well at BFWC more of the congregation have that “gift.” As in “unaffiliated Christian“ what am I to make of it? For starters I am probably not supposed to bring up the IQ dynamic, but think it’s relevant as are the socioeconomic differences, racial , possible second-class, citizen status and possibly higher sexual abuse/violence figures at PWC. The different demographics are striking, although there’s no direct relation ship many of the people at BFWC remind me of the videos I recently watched about the people of Papua New Guinea, while the people at Kayla’s church remind me of Germans and English…I’m reminded once again that despite our differences, God loves us all. That not withstanding the violence of all three of these cultures is institutionalized and in some cases ritualized, scarring the reputations of the societies and the lives of the individuals… colonizers, plantations, murder and mayhem.

At Kayla’s church the average income is probably higher and the giving is probably more “equal”, amongst the congregation, while at BFWC giving is probably less equal with a few large donors, providing most of the financial backing or at least substantially more than the average church member. The appeal for tithes and offerings at BFWC is more energetic and presented not as a requirement, but as an opportunity more so than at Kayla shirts church where in my limited exposure. I’ve seen a less energetic approach in the area of financial appeals.

yesterday Bloomberg was on in the Living Room and family members who are long the stock market watched. They mentioned that the market had rebounded almost to its record high. They will never consider anything else it seems, but I hope I’m wrong… Just like once you’ve spoken in tongues, you’re unlikely to be skeptical of it. We want to save face, we are brainwashed, raised to go along to get along and utterly propagandized by a main stream creative by occupational forces. To admit we might be wrong is an enormous blow it seems to our self-esteem. One family member said if “it“ does crash and burn, it’s all over for all of us anyway and another said that’s OK Jesus will save me, and I wouldn’t be surprised if she’s right… the common theme was that they should and will “stay the course”, both financially, where they listen to shills, and religiously which IMO is infiltrated by charlatans… % shills, charlatans, bulls and bears get rich - pigs get slaughtered. % I’m no different, no saint .

"Mine Forever
Song by Lord Huron · 2021

Overview
Lyrics

If you ever wanna see my face again, I wanna know
If you ever get lonely, please let me know
If you never wanna see my face again, I'll understand
If forever gets lonely, take my hand
Don't laugh, you'll make me cry
So long, good luck, goodbye
I know we will be together
In my mind, you're mine forever
In my mind, you're mine forever
If you're ever gonna leave this place
Don't wait, it's time to go
If you really wanna stay, I'll go alone
If you tell me where to meet
Then I'll wait 'til I turn to bones
Na-na, keep moving
Na-na, keep moving
Na-na, keep moving

Na-na, keep moving
Love is strange
I can't sleep without you
Maybe in the grave
I can do it without you
Everybody lies
But I'd never doubt you
Don't wanna die
But I can't live without you
I'm much too young to die
So long, good luck, goodbye
We will always be together
In my mind, you're mine forever
In my mind, you're mine forever
In my mind, you're mine forever
In my mind, you're mine forever
In my mind, you're mine forever
If you ever wanna see my face again, I wanna know
If you never wanna see my face again, I wanna know

Life during war time

Heard of a van that is loaded with weapons
Packed up and ready to go
Heard of some grave sites out by the highway
A place where nobody knows
The sound of gunfire off in the distance
I'm getting used to it now
Lived in a brownstone, lived in a ghetto
I've lived all over this town
This ain't no party, this ain't no disco
This ain't no fooling around
No time for dancing, or lovey dovey
I ain't got time for that now
Transmit the message to the receiver
Hope for an answer someday
I got three passports, a couple of visas
You don't even know my real name
High on a hillside, the trucks are loading
Everything's ready to roll
I sleep in the daytime, and I work in the nightime
I might not ever get home
This ain't no party, this ain't no disco
This ain't no fooling around

This ain't no mudd club, or C.B.G.B.
I ain't got time for that now
Heard about Houston? Heard about Detroit?
Heard about Pittsburgh, PA?
You oughta know not to stand by the window
Somebody see you up there
I got some groceries, some peanut butter
To last a couple of days
But I ain't got no speakers, ain't got no headphones
Ain't got no records to play
Why stay in college? Why go to night school?
Gonna be different this time?
Can't write a letter, can't send no postcard
I ain't got time for that now
Trouble in transit, got through the roadblock
We blended in with the crowd
We got computers, we're tapping phone lines
I know that that ain't allowed
We dress like students, we dress like housewives
Or in a suit and a tie
I changed my hairstyle so many times now
I don't know what I look like
You make me shiver, I feel so tender
We make a pretty good team
Don't get exhausted, I'll do some driving
You ought to get you some sleep
Burned all my notebooks, what good are notebooks?
They won't help me survive
My chest is aching, burns like a furnace
The burning keeps me alive"..,.

I'm not a Christian fundamentalist, and the news that someone stepped forward to fund repairs to damage from vandals makes me wonder if the pastor's message will be like the one after the cell phone beeper attacks by Israel. In that case he mentioned at least twice that sometimes taking off heads is necessary. He referenced David and Goliath, but to me it meant justification for the beeper and cell phone attacks, and the next week he thanked JR for his contributions to the church. Yesterday Trump dropped the "Mother of all bombs", six times" on Iran's nuclear facilities, and the title of today's message is, "Fresh oil for a new fight." it wouldn't surprise me if the donor is JR or someone else and that they may be Christian Zionist to the health and such need to be recognized by the pastor either in a pronouncement or in his message.

Another thing about the song / does it point to the theory that women are "saddled", with this beauty and sexual power they have when they're young? Is it a bird and burden they really don't want but that nature has applied and if so, why do so many enhance it, but others reject it becoming lesbians, tomboy, or celibate? Two things come to mind - one is that they don't particularly like being treated as sex objects although they may not mind the power and currency it provides them and secondly, they know it's fleeting so they use it to amass wealth and strategic relationship relationships if they possibly can so they will be secure later on. As I use the sock to get 100 little bits of toilet paper that disintegrated in the washer or dryer off the linen shirt I wonder if a Kleenex would hold together better it's not designed to disintegrate like toilet paper which goes through the sewer and into septic
I may even iron this shirt because Robin said I am looking a little shabby "" or something like that and I watched on the elderly YouTube channel show segment on how old folks should try to look nice apparently we don't Wake me up when September ends ends and they start talking about the basketball game again, but there's no one I can easily relate to. I wouldn't say I have trouble relating to them. I have difficulty.
Then I remember the problem about ironing. The iron is way too high. I can barely reach it and I'm over 6 feet. I think least I used to be.
I slide the hamper out of the way and give it the old college try
Please don't buy me another linen shirt
In fact, if it's not too late, please return it!
There's no cover on the ironing board so I'll be ironing on expanded metal. We'll see if that works. It'll be an experiment ha ha
I swallowed an aspirin 20 minutes ago when the dizziness occurred. It seems to have gone away. I guess I really exerted myself and now I straighten the comforter. Although I had a protective layer on top
I scraped the rest of the Sasquatch deodorant into the garbage. There was just a tiny bit and I will put the applicator and a CoQ10 bottle in the recycle bag later I'll check to see if I've caught a groundhog. I'd like to recycle it far away.
Jude, saw the chipmunk that I caught yesterday. I think he thought it was cute. I released it about a mile and a half away as we were walking to the lodge I saw some roadkill a dead raccoon. Looks like it just been hit. I was careful not to expose him to it. I don't think his parents would approve.
The expanded metal seems to work for ironing. Riddle me that
And Lennon looks so much better when it's ironed, but I still don't want it
Then I remember that it's a natural fiber, as opposed to easy care polyester, which I wear most of the time
And that reminds me that I don't hate chemicals and I will probably use a weed killer, but not round up to spray the cracks and the poison ivy no weed whacking that stuff for me

I wonder why they don't just use expanded metal ironing boards instead of bothering with those fabric covers, but the shirt seems to be slipping off a lot so they're probably our good reasons
I don't wanna work global trade unless I have to, but I don't wanna be terribly bored and scream of unconsciousness can only go so far I wanted to be a writer and I wonder if being self published is what do you think?
I unbutton the collar so I can straighten and iron it. It's a piece to resistance of this ironing job.
I think about Arnold on the shortcut to the great beyond and I feel for him
It was foggy and too dark to walk home from Kayla and Ross's after dropping them off at the airport so I will return the Subaru now the time is 9:26 AM
I'm still a little winded, even though the exertion was 40 minutes ago I guess it was that first fantasy and that was an embarrassment and something I'm ashamed of anyway. I'll have to avoid it in the future
I'd like to suggest this stream of consciousness, stuff to friends and family who might benefit from it, but I doubt they'll be any takers. Don't think they'd understand.
I plopped my phone into the chest pocket of the linen shirt. It should work there. It's better than wearing it earbuds but I look kind of plump. I'm gaining weight around the middle. It's that middle age. I mean, old age curse that men have I was trying to look spiffy, but I haven't pulled it off.
And this shirt only has a chess pocket over the heart. I don't like that I like to put it in a chest pocket on the right specially when it's big enough to zip or snap so the phone doesn't fall out.
I don't like the left pocket over the heart because I don't know what signals are coming from that phone. They might be harmless. They might not.
The gin thing that came from the lodge and got planted in the compost box was getting eaten up. I sprayed it with something in the garage that said indoor outdoor all purpose insect spray this morning. They look a little better.
It's a pet peeve, but I don't have a lightning pay cable in my office anymore. Robin borrows them all the time. I never get them back.
I put the two homemade no seam socks in the drawer instead of on the table where I left them Robin's a stickler for an orderly house and a clean floor
My last order of business before leaving will be to forward the emails that I sent to auto owners insurance to Tim O’Nan , Best Choice,Roofing
We're hoping for a better result
Then I see a note that says call Wells Fargo about the 12 months same as cash. I might do that too. I don't want to screw that up and pay 28.9% interest.
It's light outside and it's not dark in the house, but I turn the lights on as I go from room to room. I neither have good eyes or good balance at this point.
I think it's about time for that cataract surgery. Surely they're ripe by now.
I think about what I heard the other day about why what is the purpose of life and then Donald J Trump's saying that it's like a combat for him but he thinks there is something more to it he said there has to be and I wonder about him using the word combat when he dodged the Vietnam draft because of a podiatry a.k.a. flatfoot issue

If the first commandment is beef fruitful and multiply then why be fruitful but drive a small car and watch loved ones die? Drive a tank if you have to.
I realize that most of what I'm saying is just blithering and complaining and I wonder if self publishing even counts is having written a book? And my case barely at best.
When I show off, am I showing off or am I showing how stupid I am?
These traffic lights turn yellow as you try to get through them are timed on purpose aren't they? It's as if they're saying ha ha ha when you slam on your brakes.
Oh My, he thought as he drove past them, bright eyed, and bushy bottoms, I mean tailed
All right, that was a stupid post but it took me five or six times to get it. Siri is an awful transcriber. I cannot imagine that I will buy another Apple phone.
The box fall as I try to put them in the library dropbox I have a sling on my arm. I have to open the car get out, pick them up and put them in. My day is not going fantastically, but I am doing far better than poor Arnold.
So Trump possibly also excepted a $10 million campaign contribution from President LCC of Egypt which I don't know if that's illegal or not but I think Trump is probably the most corrupt president we've ever had dessert yet excuse because he claims he wants to do lots of great things for America, or at least for his Maga constituency? Meanwhile he's going to send the afghans who helped us back to Afghanistan, where they might be hurt by the Taliban.
The $10 million were reportedly stuffed in a duffel bag or duffel bags for the president elect
I'm reminded of the quote that power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely and it makes me think that Trump was born into a powerful family. He was corrupt from day one or at least as soon as he developed consciousness of his actions.
As I prepare to turn left on CR 100 N. to go to life's Journey there's a Tesla on my tail not exact Lee tailgating, but I seem to be in a tractor beam

Despite my several chores and stops, I arrive there at exactly 12 as scheduled. I call it uncanny, but it really isn't.

like most other people I presume I use excuses to get out of doing things that I don't wanna do when I turn 60. I decided I wouldn't let them drag me on an innertube behind the speedboat anymore and now turning 69 in a week I use the excuse that I need a nap every day, which is probably true because I average five hours of sleep at night and after shoulder surgery last month, I started wearing a sling which they said to wear for six weeks , I'm still wearing a makeshift sling and I might drag it out a little longer

It's better to do things right than to do them fast

The phrase "endeavor to persevere" is widely attributed to the 1976 film The Outlaw Josey Wales—not to Ulysses S. Grant himself.

Context in the Film:

In The Outlaw Josey Wales, a Native American character says:"We thought about it for a long time, 'endeavor to persevere'… and when we had thought about it long enough, we declared war on the Union."This line is delivered with irony, suggesting the emptiness or absurdity of bureaucratic platitudes.

Ulysses S. Grant and the Phrase:

There is no verified historical record of Ulysses S. Grant using the phrase "endeavor to persevere" in any speech, letter, or official writing. It seems to be fictional dialogue created for the movie, possibly inspired by the kind of language used in 19th-century officialdom, but not a direct quote from Grant.

Summary:
No, Ulysses S. Grant never actually said "endeavor to persevere"—the line is from The Outlaw Josey Wales and used satirically in that context.

no wonder Christian Zionism along with Jewish Zionism control this country . you have the money and numbers of people from Evangelical states and you have the money and influence of the Jewish people and AIPAC. add to that Roman Catholics and mainline protestants who are also Zionist, although perhaps to a lesser degree than evangelical Christians, and you have a perfect cauldron for brewing wars in the Middle East Armageddon, and possibly the end of the world as we know it. pure democracy can be the death knell of any society. When those who do not contribute to society financially or otherwise have equal say, that segment will continue to grow, eventually bankrupting the economy. Alternatively, if they do not have a vote or a full vote, they may still be treated very well… or well enough. Conversely, the very rich should always be restrained, or they will turn society into their own thief, them robbing from the middle-class and poor to enrich themselves. This isn't mean in a Commie or French revolution manner, but the ultra rich should not exist at all. Not should there be a hereditary, or any other type of nobility. Their spoils should be distributed through ultra progressive taxation, because despite their; whining, propaganda, claims and lies, they really do not benefit or enrich society, they only enrich themselves. trade that generated over $1 billion in profits .2. He returned in 2011 to serve as Chief Investment Officer at Soros Fund Management until 2015, overseeing major currency bets .

So yes—you are correct: Bessent did “best work” with Soros, particularly in the early and middle parts of his finance career.

Why that matters• His success under Soros helped establish his reputation as a macroeconomic strategist—skills that later appealed to the Trump administration . However, his accumulation oexperience led him to later break from Soros, launching Key Square Group in 2015 with Soros even providing a $2 billion anchor investment, which he repaid over time .

So in short: Yes, Bessent spent significant time and achieved major successes working for George Soros before moving on to other ventures and eventually serving as Treasury Secretary… chatgpt”

RE: Mark Levine:
“Political views
A 2016 study which sought to measure incendiary discourse on talk radio and TV found that Levin scored highest on its measure of "outrage". The study looked at 10 prominent radio and television programs, known for incendiary discourse on political matters, and scored content on the basis of whether it used "emotional display", "misrepresentative exaggeration", "mockery", "conflagration", "slippery slope", "insulting" or "obscene language", and other factors, finding that Levin was the radio host who engaged in the most outrage. The study found that he utilized "outrage speech or behavior at a rate of more than one instance per minute."[2] In How Democracies Die, Harvard University political scientists Daniel Ziblatt and Steven Levitsky write that Mark Levin was among the popular right-wing talk radio hosts who "helped to legitimate the use of uncivil discourse" in American politics, and contribute to the erosion of democratic norms.[69] According to Politico, Levin has a "penchant for hysteria."[70]… Wikipedia

Not an expert, but seems to me Jesus loved the Jewish people and the Old Testament, but didn’t seem as keen on the Jewish religious establishment. Matthew 23:33 reports Him saying, “You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell?”, and in Matthew 21:12-13 it says, “Jesus entered the temple courts and drove out all who were buying and selling there. He overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves. 13 “It is written,” he said to them, “‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’but you are making it ‘a den of robbers.’”

The Jewish religious establishment for their part called for his dad death and the common man said crucify Him, crucify Him.

I can see a number of reasons for lying in a war that thing about the first casually being the truth, and one of the big reasons is, everybody wants to be on the winning side so the more you lie and more grandiose, your claims are the more supporters you're likely to win. So long as they continued to work and breed, their other activities were without importance. Left to themselves, like cattle turned loose upon the plains of Argentina, they had reverted to a style of life that appeared to be natural to them, a sort of ancestral pattern. Heavy physical work, the care of home and children, petty quarrels with neighbors, films, football, beer and above all, gambling filled up the horizon of their minds. So long as they toiled, bred, and paid what they were told,

they’d rise too late

or why the sky
no longer cared.
Heavy hands and aching backs,
they worked until the night,
then fed on flickering fantasies
to drown the creeping fright.
They filled their hearts with football scores,
with beer and bets and blame,
and cursed their neighbours over scraps
but never named the game.
They spat on those who’d tried to see,

and mocked the ones who wept.
They praised the whip that bruised their skin,
and called it love, and slept.
A thousand screens, a thousand lies,
and still they watched, believed,
for truth requires sacrifice,
and comfort is relieved.
Their masters laughed in polished halls,
unchallenged in the dark.
The herd, content to chew the cud,
never saw the spark.
Not difficult to cage them,
not even with a wall.
They built it with their silence,
and never felt the fall"…

United States is the perfect country to help the Israeli establishment design is the most Christian Western nation and still the most powerful country in the world at the moment. In my opinion, Americans believe their eternal salvation depends on the rubber stamping of Israel's actions more than any other developed nation in the world.
Israel has to get America to act on its behalf soon and there in danger or the fulfillment of prophecy take your pick. American people have been dumbed down plenty, maybe enough for Israel to complete their heist, and sacrifice Us for their nefarious to rule the world. my opinion, neither love or care about the American people nor anyone else in the world we are all going to religion and agnostic power and money grubbing leaders, who to a considerable extent seem to mirror the Israeli people's' mindset.

What is the GHF that is providing food in Gaza? ok
The GHF you're referring to is the Gaza Humanitarian Foundation—a U.S. and Israeli-backed nonprofit established in February 2025 to distribute food, water, medicine, and other aid in Gaza following an 11-week blockade .

Key Facts about GHF• Operations began May 26, 2025, after delays in U.N.-led aid delivery .
• It runs four centralized distribution hubs in southern and central Gaza, secured by U.S.-hired private security contractors (e.g., Safe Reach Solutions) and overseen by the IDF .
• The GHF claims to have delivered over 50 million meals so far .
• The U.S. State Department pledged $30 million in funding .

Why It's Highly Controversial
1. Militarized Aid ModelAid sites resemble military checkpoints—gazelle fences, ID screening, sand berms—with armed contractors securing the area . This breaks from neutral humanitarian norms .2. Violence & Civilian Deaths Reports vary, but U.N. and Gaza authorities say 400–600 Palestinians were killed or wounded near GHF sites since late May from crowd chaos and military actions . Video and testimonies from contractors allege live ammo, stun grenades, tear gas were used .
3. Neutrality & Legality IssuesMajor humanitarian groups (UN, MSF, Amnesty) criticize GHF as non-neutral, opaquely organized, and possibly weaponizing aid . Over 165 NGOs called for its shutdown .
4. Political Pushback
• Hamas warns Palestinians against cooperating with GHF, claiming it endangers lives .
• Switzerland is dissolving GHF's Geneva branch due to legal irregularities .

In Summary

Feature Description
What it is U.S.–Israeli-backed humanitarian group distributing food via 4 hubs
Goal Quickly provide mass meals to replace halted U.N. aid
Controversy Militarized approach, civilian casualties, non-neutrality concerns
Despite distributing millions of meals, GHF has drawn fierce criticism—and widespread humanitarian alarm—because its heavily securitized model and centralized hubs have coincided with deadly incidents and allegations of weaponizing aid.

Say what you will, call me what you will, but I think generally speaking, men write the lyrics and women sing the songs… ^music and life

I am disappointed that we are teaching our boys that they have no right to stand their ground be at the battle of the sexes or against mother nature, or any other enemy, adversary, foreign or domestic.

Hearing about a friends 19? year old boy who might've bruised two girls arms- and his mom said "girls are so bad" or something like that, makes me think about the trials and tribulations parents go through and how we often don't see the mote in our children's eyes but only the speck in someone else's. It makes me think and hope that we can teach our children and our grandchildren, respect for others and to obey the law, and what is right, what is wrong and what is a mistake and what is the difference between the last 2. Me thinks it boils down to being kind, not hurting others, "keeping our noses clean", and staying out of jail and prison which tend to ruin lives and that's where the difference between right, wrong and mistakes becomes so important. We can say you can't get away with doing bad things, but they see that some people do, so let's try to teach and impress on them that it's not worth trying to beat the system, and it's not wrong to render unto Cesar. what is Caesars ,,, and to watch one's top knot

I think Vanguard is the Templar/Masonic side of western world finance and Blackrock is the “Tribes” leader along with Goldman Sachs and a few others - they’re strange bedfellows and will probably scab each other in the back but by then they’re nefarious work will be completed if we remain complacent, demanding only bread and circus and Nikes .

“The term “early life check” typically refers to an online phenomenon where people — especially on social media or forums like Reddit or Twitter — look up a public figure’s ethnic or religious background, often by checking their Wikipedia “Early life” section.Here’s how it’s usually meant:

Purpose:• It’s often used (sometimes sarcastically or cynically) to identify whether a person is Jewish, especially in conversations related to media, finance, or influence.
• For example: “He just said something controversial… time for the early life check.”→ They’re implying someone will look up his background, possibly to see if he’s Jewish.

Why it’s controversial:
• While it might seem like casual curiosity, it’s often loaded with antisemitic undertones — suggesting someone’s background explains or discredits their actions.• It can contribute to stereotyping or conspiracy theories, especially when it targets one group repeatedly.

In summary:
• “Early life check” is slang for checking someone’s background (usually on Wikipedia).
• Frequently used to imply or uncover ethnic/religious identity, especially Jewish heritage.
• Controversial and often problematic due to its association with online bigotry or coded antisemitism”… ChatGPT

"One year after the tragic events of September 11, 2001, a short note appeared in a U.S. newspaper. It was simple. Quiet. Powerful. Read it carefully. And if you're someone who often gets frustrated by the little things in life — maybe read it twice. "You may have heard about the CEO of a major company who survived the attacks simply because it was his turn to take his child to preschool. Another man lived because it was his day to bring donuts. One woman was late because her alarm clock didn't go off. Someone got stuck in traffic on the New Jersey Turnpike. Another missed the bus. One spilled coffee on her blouse and had to change. One person's car wouldn't start. Someone returned to answer a phone call. Another's child took too long getting ready. One simply couldn't catch a cab. But what struck me most — was a man who survived because that morning, he wore new shoes. They gave him a blister, so he stopped at a pharmacy to buy a bandage. That's why he lived." And now, when I find myself stuck in traffic, missing an elevator, going back home for keys, or answering a phone call at the last second… I pause and think: Maybe I'm exactly where I'm meant to be. Maybe this delay is protection I'll never understand. So next time your morning doesn't go as planned — The kids are slow to get ready. You can't find your keys. Let's call at the six of one rule AK the 601 rule I've never understood why they call it brainwashing although maybe you have to do that before you insert the New info via propaganda and indoctrination I think it's worth repeating that we shouldn't be telling people stuff all the time like do this do that or our opinion it's better if they find out things on their own, they have to do their own diligence. It's a mistake for us to be telling them they resented actually. It's also worth repeating that the older I get the greater gravity becomes an enemy, but once we get out of here, it's no longer the case… I’m told When I think about it, the 60 one rule kind of goes along with diminishing returns and not all is trying to get an a sometimes a B is plenty Another dovetail is that sometimes it pays to leave a little something undone for example, I cut the hangers off the Boston fern because it wasn't hanging. We should be benevolent despots and if you don't know what that means then you shouldn't be king of your castle Or at least you shouldn't have the vote. Well if you have a castle, you should have a vote. On the tube ABBA singing something it's it's I can't remember… it's SOS "The phrase "not giving heed tTitus 1:14o Jewish fables" appears in in the New Testament. It advises believers to disregard certain Jewish traditions and teachings that were not grounded in Scripture but rather were human inventions or interpretations. These "fables" were seen as distractions from the true gospel and were often associated with legalistic interpretations of the law. Here's a more detailed breakdown: • Context: The verse is part of Paul's letter to Titus, who was tasked with organizing the church in Crete. Paul was addressing false teachers who were promoting these "Jewish fables" and other human commandments, leading people away from the truth of the gospel. What are the "fables"? The "Jewish fables" referred to here are not necessarily outright lies, but rather interpretations and traditions that had become detached from the original biblical text and were being presented as essential for salvation or religious practice. • • levated human commandments and traditions to the same level as God's commandments. • Led to legalism and a focus on outward practices rather than inward transformation. • • What is the meaning for believers today? The verse serves as a reminder for believers to: • Discern between true biblical teachings and human traditions. • Focus on the core truths of the gospel message. • Be cautious of teachings that emphasize legalistic adherence to rules rather than faith in Christ. • Paul's Instruction: Titus was instructed to "rebuke them sharply" to correct these false teachings and lead people back to sound doctrine"… safari AI The above is recorded on by • Reported on by Charles Obadiah Baldwin (born in Laporte, Indiana), Liberty Fellowship's Pastor in Kalispell, Montana he also talks about: HIAS, formerly known as the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society, is a global Jewish humanitarian organization that provides aid and advocacy for refugees and asylum seekers. It was founded in 1881 to help Jewish immigrants fleeing persecution and violence, particularly those arriving in the United States. Today, HIAS works across five continents, assisting refugees of all backgrounds with legal support, resettlement, economic empowerment, and social services. • Here's a more detailed breakdown: • Mission: HIAS's core mission is to ensure that refugees find welcome, safety, and opportunity. • History: Originally focused on helping Jewish immigrants, HIAS now assists refugees of all faiths, ethnicities, and backgrounds. • Services: HIAS provides a wide range of services, including: • Legal support: Offering legal representation and assistance to asylum seekers. • Resettlement: Working with partners to resettle refugees in the United States and other countries. • Economic empowerment: Helping refugees find employment and build financial stability. • Social services: Providing mental health support, community-based programs, and other essential services. • Advocacy: Working to protect the rights of refugees and advocating for policies that support them. • Global Reach: HIAS has offices and operations in the United States, Latin America, Europe, Africa, and the Middle East. • Jewish Values: HIAS's work is rooted in Jewish values and a commitment to welcoming the stranger and protecting the vulnerable. • Emergency Response: HIAS also responds to emergencies, providing aid to refugees and displaced people affected by conflict and crises.

So attractive to the opposite sex is essential to achieve both of these goals. All of these things were seen as unbeatable now they're a hypersonic missiles. Now there are the brick nations and the dollar is under attack for being Weaponized. The only thing we have left is a nuclear triad. We are led by people who may be in a death cult and wanting to prevail, no matter what and if they don't, they will use the nuclear option or will they use the nuclear option to preserve their power or bring down the whole world if they can't can't Thinking more about the 60 one rule six or 1/2 dozen of the other and the incident loading 50 foot coils of chain-link fence under the back of the truck with the help of a strong lady at Lowe’s. It was my arm on one end her arms on the other, we tossed them both in the back of the pick up truck and insure two was sticking out on my end and I thought for a minute should I just close the tailgate or should I push it well like a dummy, I pushed it but it jammed on some thing and jammed my shoulder, one more setback and a time when I shouldn't have applied that rule, I should've thought more about it. This morning, however when I hung the clothes in our closet, and there were about 10 hangers that I could carry back to the laundry room once again I thought about applying it and this time it made sense because the damage wouldn't be injuring my shoulder again it would be perhaps dropping one or two hangers since my hands were full. However if consequences are potentially significant don't apply the rule think things over more carefully… so at this moment, I turned the hallway light on light helps prevent falls for people, my age. With a few exceptions I find it hard to tell natural beauty from beauty provided by cosmetics… it's an art "In geopolitics, "endgame theory" in the context of nuclear war usually refers to the strategic analysis of how a nuclear confrontation would conclude—and how the final moves would shape the outcome for the surviving states (if any). It combines military strategy, deterrence theory, and escalation control to answer questions like: 1. What Happens After the First Nuclear Use? • Endgame theory looks at the terminal phase of nuclear conflict—after the initial exchange, when the war has either escalated to full-scale or is at a brink where leaders must decide between total annihilation or de-escalation.• Key questions: • Does one side launch everything immediately ("use it or lose it")? • Can there be controlled nuclear exchanges? • What pressure points can end the war quickly before it spirals into mutual destruction? 2. Concepts Involved • Mutually Assured Destruction (MAD): Both sides know that no one "wins" in a total exchange. Endgame theory focuses on avoiding or managing that stage. • Escalation ladders: A framework for how conflict can move step-by-step toward (or away from) total war, and where de-escalation can occur. • Decapitation strikes vs. counterforce targeting: Whether to end a war by targeting leadership and command centers or by destroying the enemy's military/nuclear capability. • Second-strike capability: The ability to retaliate even after absorbing a first strike, which shapes the endgame calculus. 🆓 3. Post-Strike Stability • If both sides have already exchanged some nuclear fire, the theory asks • Can there be a negotiated ceasefire after limited use? • What's the minimum deterrence needed to prevent the other side from continuing? • How do surviving command structures maintain order amid chaos? 4. The "Endgame" Scenarios In most strategic models, nuclear endgames fall into a few categories: 1. Total Annihilation: Both sides exchange their full arsenals—civilization collapse scenario. 2. Mutually Hurting Stalemate: Both retain enough weapons to destroy each other again, so they agree to stop. 3. One-Sided Victory: Rare in theory—one side destroys the other's retaliatory capability early (requires surprise + perfect intelligence, which is nearly impossible). 4. Negotiated Halt: Limited use leads to talks under extreme pressure, possibly with outside mediation. 🆓 Essentially, nuclear endgame theory is the grim branch of deterrence strategy that asks: If the unthinkable happens, what are the very last moves before the world either stops fighting or burns completely? If you want, I can walk you through an actual Cold War-era nuclear endgame simulation that U.S. and Soviet planners used—it's disturbingly meticulous. Would you like me to do that?"… ChatGPT. thinking about multiple things… I’m better at the latter- not that it’s been all that useful . “Ephesians 6:12, a well-known verse in the Bible, states, "For we are not contending against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world rulers of this present darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places." This verse emphasizes that the Christian's true struggle is not against physical enemies or human opposition, but against spiritual forces of evil. It highlights the existence of a spiritual realm with various levels of demonic powers that actively oppose God and believers. Here's a breakdown of the key points: • Not against flesh and blood:This means the primary battle is not against other humans, but against unseen spiritual forces. • Principalities and Powers:These terms refer to different ranks and levels of demonic authority within the spiritual realm. • World rulers of this present darkness:This highlights the influence of evil forces on the world's systems and culture. • Spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places:This refers to the demonic realm where these forces operate and oppose God. Understanding this verse is crucial for Christians to recognize the spiritual dimension of their faith and the need to rely on God's power and protection. Some Christians suggest that this verse can be used as a prayer focus for spiritual warfare.”… safari AI “

Where are the sweet spots? Does anyone have them in spades?

Tragically war will continue until humans decide that they don't want to run other peoples lies on an individual basis a corporate basis, a national basis, and the worldwide basis there are forces who want to run the world. This is forces that want to run our lives so let's learn not to do that and to get along and our own peas and cues.

I'm sure lots of people have felt this way you get a health scare to in you and you start thinking I want to spend the rest of my life picking nuts in the woods or something like that course most people might say playing golf or going fishing

Every once in a while, gravity helps out today. I was trying to get waffles out of the iron and it did.

And I believe in flying back fortunes of billionaires because they fall into the Balzac "category but people with small and medium size fortunes have most often made them honestly and actually contributed to society, so leave them alone and don't burden them with great taxes

I wouldn’t say that this race or that race is mentally ill. I would say they are mentally different. They might say us as mentally ill. We are mentally different from them, and I am not going to adopt their values without resistance. As I watch Professor Alice Roberts on YouTube on BBC’s “Timestamp”, The Incredible rewards Origins of early Humans in Asia, it’s interesting that they are discussing differences between the races. Ordinarily, it’s suggested that we focus mainly on the similarities which I agree are profound, but the differences may be equally profound - or not. There’s a pick up the hickory nuts. It occurs to me that I’m on bad terms with most animals except cats and dogs if they can catch mice or chase cats I mean anyway I’m on bad relations with rodents and terrible relations with bugs. Run around render unto to Cesar what his is Caesars stay out of politics if you can it’s a dirty game, but it’s necessary. There has to be governance, but it always goes south. It always goes wrong between individuals. Families states countries regions. There are border disputes their personality disputes. There may be interference from Powers beyond our understanding, but in any case, if you can avoid the situation and fly below the radar, it might be a good idea. Even the most respective governments are riddled with greed, corruption, and special interest. We, in my opinion live under an occupied government. Whose legitimacy is questionable. How will AI figure into this other than to wrestle even more self-determination from us? % Report on Bloomberg this morning will program AI, but who will be in charge of the algorithms and the “screenplay?” Several months into the Trump presidency he is okayed sending long range missiles to Ukraine although maybe he won’t let them fire them or at least try to let them fire them without American supervision so that in Russia are carefully chosen is not to escalate the war. Trump called us Biden‘s war, but he is now deeply involved since unlike his campaign claims that he would end it on day one he has done nothing of the kind. It looks like he is more or less continuing what Biden did And I think of George Washington’s farewell address avoid foreign conflicts, etc. and although the George Washington administration wad far from perfect., George said some wise things in his farewell address most of which Americans know nothing about… we have been dumped dumbed down with bread, Circus immigration, and “inbreeding.“ Meanwhile, next week in China, the Shanghai cooperation organization will meet - leaders attending include Vladimir Putin, Modi of India, and of course she Xi of China. Trump apparently will not unless he crashes the party, but China and India together comprise at least a third of the world population of which there are probably 180 countries at least - we don't hear about this meeting on the news, it's irrelevant or at least none of our business as far as our masters are concerned. .% all three of the above are nuclear powers to boot together. They have more nukes than all the other nuclear powers which makes them even more relevant. They also have growing GDP's and technological expertise rival our own. #What wywill hear on the Western mainstream news will be Globalist propaganda. "CIA covert missions (1950s): "Operation Red Sox" was a CIA program during the early Cold War to insert anti-Communist agents into Soviet satellite states (especially Albania, Poland, Czechoslovakia, etc.) to gather intelligence and stir resistance. Most of these missions failed because the Soviets and their security services (like the KGB and StB) had infiltrated the networks…. Were former Nazis inserted into Ukraine for operation Red Socks?… Yes — some of the CIA's early Operation Red Sox missions into Eastern Europe (including Ukraine, Poland, and the Baltic states) involved using former Nazi collaborators, though it's a bit more complicated than just "Nazis." Here's what historians have documented: 🆓 Background on Operation Red Sox • Timeframe: Late 1940s through the 1950s. • Goal: Insert trained agents into Soviet-controlled territories (Ukraine, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Albania, the Baltics) to build resistance networks, gather intelligence, and destabilize communist regimes. • Partners: The CIA worked with Britain's MI6 and other Western services. Who Were the Agents? • Many were émigrés from Eastern Europe who had fled westward at the end of WWII. • Some had served in collaborationist military units under the Nazis, such as: • Ukrainian nationalist fighters (including elements linked to Stepan Bandera's Organization of Ukrainian Nationalists, OUN-B). • Former members of the Waffen-SS Galicia Division (Ukrainian volunteers who fought with the Germans). • Others were Baltic or Polish émigrés who had also cooperated with German forces during the war because they viewed the Soviets as their primary enemy"… chatGPT A common refrain is if this is the end of the world I don't wanna be here anyway… and it's hard to argue with . One "problem", is that you can't tell who the troublemakers are you can't say all blacks, all Hispanics, all whites etc. because there's a bell curve for each one / with some people being incredibly altruistic and kind and others being malicious and evil but these curves vary from group to group and from time to time and place to place . The happy wife, happy life thing is overrated anyway because a woman by her very nature can never be happy, can never be satisfied - neither can we, but I think it's even more so with the ladies Unlike Aggie - Audra never appears; heavy, bloated, "water logged", etc. I think it's because Aggie already had two kids in her 20s… % what about cellulite? There will always be ebb flow at least in this if there is a heavenly dimension that is different maybe things are better there. In the meantime, the competing power blocks will wrangle over control of society, and it will occasionally boil over and sometimes erupt into violence. % Thank God for music and beauty. Maybe that's a good thing when it comes to economics but it reminds me that Imo, women may be slightly less creative on average than men, although there are many exceptions and my definition of ingenuity and creativity are probably different than the average woman's, it also reminds me that women are team players. They want to cooperate because they want stability in security and they want to impose that view which reduces freedom which is what men are mostly after the beehive versus the lion, pride has been forever and probably will be, there are different priorities although survival and reproduction are probably at the top of the list they definition of both either differs or way of obtaining it does % The topic is "the race to replace the chairman Powell" # on the ticker, "K-pop's Demon hunters wins the weekend box office"… The world is changing… and someone wants us to change with it, but who? They aka both sides of the elitists will use AI to further reeducate and indoctrinate us, but moments ago, Siri couldn't even find a logical replacement for this misspelling, "representatef"… that's pretty sad . "Ann Marie's back from vacation - how do you feel Farro asks, "oh well you know" she says Bramo's on vacation Jonathan says she'll be back next week. "Every gun that is made, every warship launched, every rocket fired, signifies… a theft from those who hunger and are not fed, those who are cold and are not clothed. This world in arms is not spending money alone. It is spending the sweat of its laborers, the genius of its scientists, and the hopes of its children"…President Dwight Eisenhower's farewell address, warning about the military industrial complex. Weather forecast predicted a 25% chance of rain at 1 o'clock yet it's been raining all morning steadily and you want us to rely on AI and science in all areas of our life that is a freaking joke and as usual I had to do this manually because of a little rain, Siri said there's a problem If it weren't for the wind, my goodness, the singers a dandy, but it's fleeting so fleeting I give her a few more years and wish her the best… next on the tube appropriately so many people have come and gone, their faces is fade as the years go by …Boston more than a feeling When people pontificator act like no at all, I think it's better to just sit back and listen. Let them have their stage not that much different if any. No one's perfect physically or mentally and as far as I know, most of us don't get better as we age except maybe our dispositions I'm arriving at the age where sometimes I have to sit down to pee because the screen isn't always strong enough to make it to the middle of the bowl if you know what I mean, but my legs aren't strong enough for me to easily get up, especially with a blown out shoulder so I can't even grab the bar I trim my eyebrows because she says it looks better and I believe her and as I do it, I take my time. It's less important to get them perfect than to not run over my eyeball with the trimmer. The bigger the smiler, the bigger the liar… But not always

I sometimes hear the expression, happy wife, happy life and wonder if that's true. I think you considerate expense to a considerable extent it is and it's partly because of democracy… a.k.a. we been declawed and defanged - one or the other would've been enough plenty. Many of us have heard the expression "all politics is local" so if you don't like local politicians, what do you do? And what does local mean? Is it your HOA? Your town, county, state, country, solar system, galaxy or universe? I would agree with "render unto Caesar, what is Caesar's", which is said in the Bible, Matthew 22:21, Mark 12:17, and Luke 20:25, because all else is baloney, and every level of politics is corrupt. Problem with go-getters is that when they get their way, they want it to be that way or the highway for everyone. "The nation which indulges toward another an habitual hatred or an habitual fondness is in some degree a slave"… George Washington Men and women both multitask but there are different Bell curves for them. So perhaps generally women, "by necessity", multitask, and men perhaps "by choice?"stay on task ? This morning I went down the rabbit hole of slavery. One of the first videos said, only 2% of Americans owned slaves, another said 25% of southerners owned slaves. The population was greater in the north so there might've been some truth to both of those statements although I imagine all kinds of figures and estimates are available. The next factoid was that slavery has always existed in human societies. People of probably every race have been enslaved and may have owned slaves. Another video states that the Comanche Indians had a vast slave society, and another one said hundreds of thousands of native Americans were shipped to Europe as slaves. On and on the factoids and opinions go… What sticks out for me is that in the American south it was the wealthy plantation owners who had the most slaves by far and were probably and generally the most brutal and dehumanizing to the slaves. It reminds me of today where wealthy people in the north, south, east and west are the primary perpetrators proponents and financial beneficiaries of endless wars, fought by the descendants of slaves and descendants of the vast majority of Americans who never owned slaves and who were not, and are not wealthy. To some men the swirl, the muffin is an unstable invitation, but that's not what it's supposed to be and that's why it's kept under wraps until the last minute… it's ammunition

Robin Hussle off to go to church to clean the bathroom that was contaminated by somebody with an illness. She's hustling as usual. I am staying home after being worn out by one of the children. She had them both by herself in the morning, which is even harder and my only excuse that I can use is that I've got a bum knee I mean a bum shoulder, a trick knee and a bad back. I will use that when necessary with the boy not with Robin.

So I stagger upstairs into the quiet former bedroom of Tyler here I will silence my phone, close my eyes, and try to get some rest

I cleaned some wax out of my ear, so hopefully I'll hear Tommy better and my fingers look dehydrated. I'll have to take a sip.

The skull exhibits a mix of modern and archaic features, suggesting that early human ancestors may have persisted longer in Africa than previously thought. This discovery was significant because it was the first Pleistocene-age hominin fossil found in West Africa and challenged prevailing ideas about human evolution and migration patterns on the continent. Discovery and Context • Location: The skull was found at the Iho Eleru (Cave of Ashes) rock shelter in Ondo State, Nigeria. Excavation: It was discovered in 1965 by Thurstan Shaw and his team, along with a skeleton and many Later Stone Age artifacts. Dating: The associated charcoal was dated to around 11,200 BP (Before Present).

Significance • Archaic Features: The skull has a long, low cranial shape and other features that are considered archaic, though it also possesses some modern characteristics. Human Persistence: The combination of features suggests that distinct archaic hominin populations, rather than just early modern humans, may have existed in Africa longer than previously believed, potentially coexisting and interbreeding with their descendants. West African Paleontology: Its discovery was the first from West Africa and provided crucial evidence for understanding the diversity and complexities of early human populations and their evolution in the region. Challenging Assumptions: The Iwo Eleru cranium challenged previous ideas about the timeline and patterns of early human migration and evolution in West Africa." This event marks the culmination of his trial, where he was accused of blasphemy against Moses and God but instead proclaimed his vision of Jesus. The Context • Stephen's Sermon: Stephen, a man filled with the Holy Spirit, had been debating Jewish leaders and delivering a compelling sermon on the history of Israel, culminating in his accusation that his listeners were resisting the Holy Spirit. • Their Reaction: His words enraged the religious leaders, who could not counter his arguments and resorted to violence. The Incident • Noise and Fury: As the religious leaders heard Stephen's powerful testimony and his vision of Jesus in heaven, they covered their ears and shouted loudly to drown him out, a clear sign of their inability to accept his message. • The Attack: They then "rushed at him with one accord". • First Martyr: This action led to Stephen being dragged out of the city and stoned to death, making him the first Christian martyr. Significance • Proof of Faith:The event highlights the intense opposition to the early Christian movement, as leaders were willing to kill to silence those who preached Jesus. • Saul's Involvement:The account also notes that the witnesses of the stoning laid their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul, who would later become the Apostle Paul, indicating his approval and involvement in the execution." Upon searching on safari, it’s generated this AI response: “Martin Luther's essay On the Jews and Their Lies (1543) was a hateful and antisemitic treatise calling for the persecution and expulsion of Jewish people. It is considered one of his most controversial works, and many Lutheran churches have since repudiated its virulent anti-Jewish statements. Background and context • A shift in tone: Early in his career, Luther expressed sympathy for Jews, hoping they would convert to his reformed Christianity. However, when his efforts to convert them failed, his views soured dramatically and became increasingly hostile, culminating in the publication of this essay. • Pre-existing prejudice: Luther did not invent antisemitism. His writing drew heavily upon medieval anti-Jewish stereotypes, portraying Jews as greedy, deceitful, and morally corrupt. His work served to amplify and lend theological justification to these existing prejudices. Key accusations and themes In the essay, Luther repeatedly vilified Jewish people and Judaism, making several accusations: • Demonization: He characterized Judaism as a false religion and accused Jews of being agents of the devil. He also claimed their beliefs and practices were based on lies and deceit. • Rejection of Christ: Luther was furious that Jews did not accept Jesus as the Messiah, and he characterized them as obstinate and ungrateful. • Economic exploitation: He accused Jews of engaging in usury (lending money at interest), which he claimed they used to exploit Christians. • Allegations of malevolence: He accused Jews of harboring an intense hatred for non-Jews and claimed they were "congenital misanthropes" who would murder Gentiles if they had the chance. The "seven remedies" for dealing with Jews The most inflammatory section of the essay contains Luther's recommendations for how Christian rulers should treat their Jewish subjects. These so-called "remedial actions" are a blueprint for persecution and forced expulsion. 1. Burn down synagogues and schools and warn people against them. 2. Confiscate their prayer books and Talmudic writings. 3. Forbid rabbis from preaching. 4. Destroy Jewish homes and force Jews to live like "gypsies" in stables or under a roof. 5. Confiscate their wealth (gold and silver) and use it to aid Jews who convert. 6. Force young, able-bodied Jews to perform manual labor. 7. Expel them if they do not convert. Legacy and condemnation Historians widely believe that On the Jews and Their Lies significantly influenced subsequent antisemitic thought in Germany. The Nazi Party later used Luther's work to justify its persecution of Jews. During World War II, copies of the book were even displayed at Nazi rallies. In the decades following the Holocaust, numerous Lutheran denominations have formally apologized for and distanced themselves from Luther's antisemitic writings. In 1998, for example, the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Bavaria explicitly condemned Luther's anti-Jewish statements." Since when did other people become our conscience? The one I’m looking at in the aforementioned YouTube video has a distinctive swastika on it. “Rakhi envelopes have swastikas because, in Hinduism and other Dharmic religions, the swastika is a sacred symbol of good fortune, prosperity, and well-being. The word "swastika" comes from Sanskrit and means "good fortune," and the symbol is used for auspicious occasions like Rakhi to bring good luck to the recipient. It is important to note the vast difference in meaning between the ancient symbol and its later co-option by the Nazi party. • Ancient and sacred symbol: The swastika has been used for thousands of years and is a sacred symbol in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Jainism. • Meaning: In Hinduism, the right-facing swastika (卐) symbolizes the sun, prosperity, and good luck. • Cultural context: The swastika is a common sight on religious buildings and in homes in India, representing auspiciousness and well-being. • Rakhi connection: Its presence on a Rakhi envelope is a continuation of this tradition, meant to bless the exchange and bring good fortune to the brother and sister. • Distinction from Nazi symbol: It is crucial to distinguish this ancient, positive symbol from the swastika used by the Nazi party, which adopted it for its own purposes”… AI Next on the Grace digital networks YouTube called “he has arrived: did Jared Kushner fulfill the prophecy of Daniel?“ “Maybe I’m just like my mother. The punch line which they both used to their "advantage", and against people across the aisle, was because her mom did. Maybe the first mom needed to But the granny in the story didn't yet still does… but why? Should I preclude myself from saying anything that precludes others from thinking for themselves? what I'm thinking about specifically is the grandchildren and when they're told "Jesus was is perfect He's the only one who was ever perfect", should I say yes and go along with the party line, or should I say "I don't know." He said similar things would be the assassination of MLK and Malcolm X funny how they are both known large by initials. I would take MLK out of it. Slowly lower yourself toward the chair by pushing your hips back first, like you’re trying to close the car door with your butt. Barely touch the chair with your butt, then rise with arms extended for balance and squeeze glutes. Eventually switch to a coffee table or ottoman if possible for even better results. finally do it with no chair, ottoman or coffee table at all. “Bird dog hold” progressions; get on hand and knees on a comfortable surface, hands directly under your shoulders and knees under your hips, spine in neutral position not arched, start by lifting your right arm straightforward, while simultaneously lifting your left legs straight. Goal is to create one straight line from your fingertips to your toes. Hold position for five seconds initially, focusing on keeping your hips level and not rotating your body. Lower slowly and repeat on the opposite side. Eventually increase a hold to 10 seconds after several weeks of practice. Later add a subtle pulse movement where you lift your extended arm and leg up an extra inch then back to parallel, while maintaining the hold. Finally do it with your eyes closed to remove visual balance cues. Wall pushups. Seated leg lifts with resistance @ desk. "Here is a brief biography of Dumitru Duduman (1932–1997) — his life, ministry, and legacy. 3️⃣ Early Life & Background • He was born on July 14, 1932, in the village of Hinţeşti, in northeastern Romania, near the Russian border. • His parents were George and Ecaterina Duduman. His grandfather, Costache, played a major role in his spiritual upbringing. • His father and older brother were imprisoned early under the communist regime due to their Christian faith; the rest of the family was assigned to hard labour. 3️⃣ Military Service & Conversion • At age 17, Duduman joined the Romanian army. He spent eight months in boot camp at Chitila, then four and a half years at the Constanţa Military School, culminating in a rank of Lieutenant and commanding about 80 men. • He was assigned to inspect ships at Constanţa harbor for illicit Bibles and Christian materials. One day he discovered a large number of Bibles and, though his duty was to confiscate them, he felt compelled by a voice to assist rather than arrest the man responsible. This moment marked the beginning of his turnaround. • At age 24, after a law dismissed all Christian soldiers, he returned home angry—but attending his father's church service he was deeply moved by a hymn and recommitted his life to God. Shortly thereafter he and his wife Maria (Ecaterina) were married, and their daughter Virginia was born April 18, 1957. 3️⃣ Ministry, Bible Smuggling & Persecution • After his conversion he began preaching and became involved in healing ministry and prophecy. His wife reportedly regained her sight after years of blindness. • Beginning in 1973, Duduman began smuggling Bibles into Russia (then USSR) and throughout communist Romania. Over about 15 years he is reported to have smuggled more than 300,000 Bibles into Russia alone. • In 1979 he was arrested, tortured (including electric shock, broken ribs), interrogated for over five months, yet he reportedly did not break under questioning. • On July 24, 1984, Duduman and his family were expelled from Romania by the communist government (he was given the choice: leave or die). 3️⃣ Life in the West & Prophetic Ministry • After leaving Romania, the family briefly stayed in Italy and then immigrated to the United States, arriving August 3, 1984. In the U.S., he began the ministry Hand of Help Ministries, initially focused on sending food and aid to Christian families persecuted under communism. • Duduman also became known for his prophetic messages regarding the U.S.—in particular warnings that "America will burn" because of sin and internal revolt, nuclear attack, and spiritual decline. • A 1991 newspaper article described him as "a former Romanian customs officer… who converted to Christianity and smuggled 300,000 Bibles to his fellow countrymen during the communist regime." 3️⃣ Death & Legacy • Dumitru Duduman died on May 5, 1997. • He authored books, including 🆓 Considerations & Context • The primary sources about his life are from his ministry's website and affiliated Christian publications. Some of the more sensational claims (such as miraculous protection, visions of America burning, etc.) are part of his personal testimony and prophetic ministry rather than independently verified historical records. • His story illustrates the broader context of religious persecution in communist Eastern Europe—especially Romania—where Christian activity was heavily monitored and restricted. • His prophetic warnings to America reflect a particular strand of evangelical/esoteric prophecy; readers interested in his life may want to distinguish between the historical events (arrest, smuggling, exile) and the prophetic claims (visions, end-time warnings) in his narrative"… chatGPT I don't think that my opposing the genocide "" in Gaza would do anything to stop it or to change history and prophecy but I do think I don't need to support what is going on and if everybody didn't support it, maybe prophecy would change or maybe it's written in stone and those who support what's going on all right I don't know but I don't support what Israel is doing % doesn't seem like a sons of light kind of thing  .

Through the Fire: The True Story of a Romanian Pastor Facing Communist Persecution and
Through the Fire Without Burning, recounting his story and prophetic visions. • His story is often cited in circles emphasising Christian persecution, Bible-smuggling under communism, and end-times prophecy.
